LENT

Fast & Abstinence

you are reminded of the Church’s laws for fast and abstinence during the Lenten season. Good Friday is a day of fasting and abstinence. Catholics between the ages of 18 & 59 are permitted 1 full meal and 2 lesser meals per day(which together should not equal 1 full meal) with no eating between meals. All Friday’s of Lent are days of Abstinence. Catholics who are 14 years or older should abstain from meat entirely.

Lenten Recipe Corner Cheese Empanadas with Beans

Empanadas

- 2 c flour
- 2 T vegetable shortening
- 1 t baking powder
- 1 c cold water mixed with 1 t salt
- 12 oz queso fresco or farmer’s cheese, shredded
- 4 T fair trade olive oil

Beans

- 2 16-oz cans of kidney beans, drained
- 1 onion, diced
- 1 red bell pepper, chopped
- 1 t cumin
- Cilantro (for garnish)

Empanadas: Mix the flour, shortening, baking powder and salted water in a medium-sized bowl. Knead until combined. On a floured surface, form dough into a roll. Cut into 6 to 8 equal pieces. Flatten each piece into a circle about 5 inches in diameter. Place about a tablespoon of cheese on one half of the circle and fold the other half of the dough over the cheese, making sure to seal the cheese inside.

Add oil to a large pan and heat until very hot. Place one empanada in the pan. Once the bottom is browned, turn over to cook the other side. Remove from pan and place on a paper towel to absorb the extra oil. Repeat with the other pieces of dough.

Beans: In a separate pan, sauté the onion and bell pepper with oil. Add the beans and cumin until warm. Garnish with cilantro.

Makes 6–8 empanadas

Liturgical Corner

Why do we call priests "Father"?

Bishops, who are the shepherds of the local Church community and the authentic teachers of the faith, were given the title "Father." Actually, until about the year 400, a bishop was called "papa" for Father; this title was then restricted solely to addressing the Bishop of Rome, the successor of St. Peter, and in English was rendered "pope." Later, in the Middle Ages, the term "father" was used to address the mendicant friars - like the Franciscans and Dominicans - since by their preaching, teaching and charitable works they cared for the spiritual and physical needs of all of God's children just as a father cares for his own family.

Our priests are always mindful of the "physical" needs of his flock - food, housing, clothing and education. In the English-speaking world, addressing all priests as "Father" has become customary. Please remember to pray for our priests, especially those that serve in our own parishes, that by God's grace they may strive to fulfill the responsibility of being "Father."
