Catholic Home Missions Appeal

Next week, we will take up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Right now, over 40 percent of dioceses in the US are considered home missions because they are unable to fund essential pastoral work needed in their communities. Your support of this appeal helps ease the struggle of these dioceses. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this appeal. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions.

Why does the two disciples not initially see Jesus as described in the scripture story "On The Road to Emmaus"?

St. Luke incisively describes how the disciples had completely lost their bearings and sense of spiritual direction in the overwhelming aftermath of Jesus' death: "They stopped, looking down-cast" (Lk. 24:17). Approached by Jesus, they failed to recognize their Lord. Responding to His question about their conversation, the men explained their confusion: Jesus was "a prophet mighty in deed and word" and yet He had not fulfilled their hope for redemption (v. 21). In addition to this disappointment there was the added mystery of the empty tomb, although they apparently hadn't reached a conclusion about what it might actually mean.

Jesus chided them and took them to the Scriptures, "beginning with Moses and with all the prophets"(v. 27), to show them the true nature of "the Christ." There are several passages that Jesus likely showed them, including Deuteronomy 18:15, which promised "a prophet" like Moses; Psalm 2:7, a Messianic psalm; and Isaiah 53, which describes the Suffering Servant; as well as others. The disciples had to be shown that salvation and glory wouldn't come through political might or social upheaval, but through humiliation, suffering, and apparent defeat

– Carl E. Olson

Like these two disciples, we must continually work to keep our eyes opened to Jesus who will point us to the Word and will reveal Himself along life's walk as the resurrected Savior and Lord. Additionally, we have great tools at our disposal such as Reconciliation and our own Prayers that will keep our vision sharp and well-focused as we walk down our own Road to Emmaus.
