EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

APRIL 01, 2018

I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the LORD.

— Psalm 118:17

I'm sure, you've noticed a door on all the buildings. Now - whenever you walk through a door you're going from one place to another. And - as you walk through a door you have certain emotions, depending on what's on the other side of the door. When - you walk through some doors, you may have a feeling of excitement or joy. When - you walk through other doors, you may have a sense of anxiety or fear. Again - it all depends on what's on the other side of the door.

Now - the reason I try to present this analogy is because when you think about Easter it is all about A DOOR! UNDERSTAND - Two thousand years ago, God the Son (the Alpha and Omega... the beginning and the end... the prince of peace, the everlasting Father, the Mighty God) left - all the glories of heaven, put on human flesh (accepting it's limitations) and walked through the door of human history... or – should I say, walked through the door of HIS STORY...

That's why Easter is the focal point of all history – because Jesus Christ (Our king who came to bring us back to him) is the focal point of all human history (think about it, all time revolves around Him. BC/AD. Every time you date a cheque, print a calendar... every time this unbelieving world puts a date on a newspaper or magazine they are bearing witness to Him... You see - History just cannot get away from Him).

That's why 2000 years later over 2 billion people all around the world are celebrating His Resurrection. And our goal – this Easter, is to find our place in His story. Now is the time. Now is all we have. The miracle is in the moment; it is always in the moment because that's all we have. I am going to ask you to open the door of your heart to Christ now. Open the door NOW!

Happy Easter

LITURGICAL CORNER

Excerpts of Pope Francis 2017 Easter Message "Urbi et Orbi"

By his resurrection, Jesus Christ has set us free from the slavery of sin and death, and has opened before us the way to eternal life.

All of us, when we let ourselves be mastered by sin, lose the right way and end up straying like lost sheep. But God himself, our shepherd, has come in search of us. To save us, he lowered himself even to accepting death on the cross.

In every age, the Risen Shepherd tirelessly seeks us, his brothers and sisters, wandering in the deserts of this world. With the marks of the passion – the wounds of his merciful love – he draws us to follow him on his way, the way of life. Today too, he places upon his shoulders so many of our brothers and sisters crushed by evil in all its varied forms.

The Risen Shepherd goes in search of all those lost in the labyrinths of loneliness and marginalization. He comes to meet them through our brothers and sisters who treat them with respect and kindness, and help them to hear his voice, an unforgettable voice, a voice calling them back to friendship with God.

With one voice, in every part of the world, we proclaim the great message: "The Lord is truly risen, as he said!" May Jesus, who vanquished the darkness of sin and death, grant peace to our days.
