2ND SUNDAY OF LENT

MARCH 17, 2019

The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom should I fear?

— Psalm 27:1

From the Desk of our Pastor

Beloved Parishioners,

Today we begin our Annual Retreat (Parish Lenten Mission) with my friend Fr. Tony Eseke. Mission starts at 7 PM every night from Sunday through Wednesday. Our Parish Penance Service is during our Parish Mission on Tuesday night with the opportunity for individual confessions with your favorite priests. We conclude our Parish Mission on Wednesday night with the Mass and special healing service.

We are in the second week of Lent and the scripture readings remind us that this beautiful season is all about renewal and becoming better version of our-selves. Fr. Tony will lead us with his talks in transforming our lives in Christ. And on this 2nd Sunday of Lent we learn about Transfiguration of Our Lord.

We may never know exactly what happened at the moment of the Transfiguration and how it happened. Even so, it conveys to us a message of great significance. It poses the question: who is this Jesus? It is stated "They kept awake and saw his glory." This teaches us a good lesson: as long as our minds are asleep, we will miss much in life.

Do we not close our minds to new ideas simply because we are prejudiced? How often do we not shut our minds and do not even want to face our problems because we are lethargic? How often do we shut our minds against any disturbing thought because we love ease? Thus, one of the lessons we have to learn is that we should be fully awake to grasp the meaning and significance of things around us and the events in our life.

Transfiguration is enlightenment, awakening. As Jesus was transfigured, we too can, if we want. God-experience is the fruit of an earnest desire and hard striving. It starts with real awakening.

The disciples were given a chance to experience the glorious Christ. But it was so short that they again doubted. We all have experienced moments of happiness. After a tiring day, we go for a walk or relax. After a long day of heat, we enjoy taking a shower. After a quarrel we re-establish friendship. Then we see everything differently. All these moments are God's revelations; there we have a taste of the transfiguration. It reminds us that suffering and turmoil are not the whole thing, that we should not succumb to false hopes and expectations.

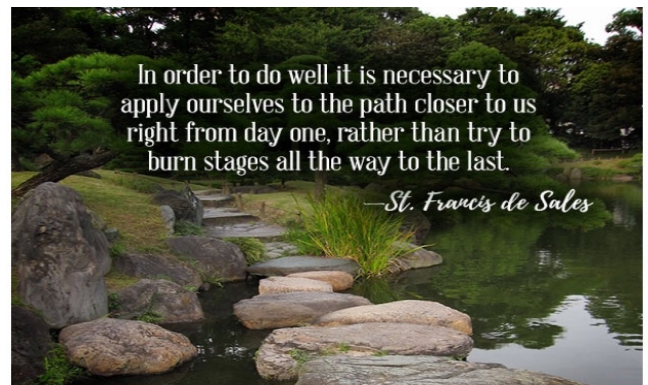

For us it means concretely:

- Jesus and His Word is the light for us.
- We have the light only as long as we follow him and keep his word in daily life.

To be a Christian means to take up the cross and follow the way of Jesus in order to be a sharer of his glory.

We need to hold fast to the Word of God, then we to can see the glory of God who would say: 'You are my beloved child.'

I pray that you all participate in the Parish Mission and be enriched in the Word of God!

STEWARDSHIP IN ACTIONRAY STILES

Ray is very typical of many Catholics who strive to be a faithful follower of Jesus and the teachings of the Church. In 1998, he began to feel an interior pull that the Lord wanted more from him. It began at St. Paul's at the beach where he volunteered as an usher and a CCD aide. In 2006 when Ray, his wife Patricia and their 4 children moved to Holy Spirit, he gradually increased his parish involvement by becoming a Lector and Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion. Then, while still very active with his young family and continuing in his career as a Project Manager at CSX, Ray went back to school, enrolling in the 3-year diocese Ministry Formation Program. Now as a 2017 graduate, he has applied to the diaconate program where he hopes to follow in the recent footsteps of fellow parishioners David Belanger and Ed Prisby to become a permanent deacon. Using his enhanced knowledge of doctrine and liturgy, Ray is helping to teach the RCIA classes for those wishing to enter our faith and just recently accepted Father Amar's invitation to join our new Liturgical Council. He organizes the Rosary Procession & the Liturgy for the International Pentecost Festival. The little pull that Ray felt over 20 years ago has led him down paths that he never anticipated at the time. It has brought him in contact with many wonderful people and has greatly deepened his spiritual life. He has discovered in himself and in others that responding to the Holy Spirit, just as the apostles did, makes ordinary men and women the hands, feet and voice of Jesus. His favorite mottos are: "Make Today Better than Yesterday" and "Become a Better Version of Yourself"! You are living true to those goals, Ray. Thank you for serving our parish so well and Best Wishes in your new endeavors!

You are reminded of the Church's laws for fasting and abstinence during the Lenten Season. Good Friday is a day of fasting. Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59 are permitted one full meal and two lesser meals per day (which together should not equal one full meal), with no eating between meals.

All Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence. Catholics who are 14 years or older should abstain from meat entirely. Soups and gravies made from meat are permitted.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul, Inc. Holy Spirit Conference

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
The Society of St. Vincent de Paul at Holy Spirit Church is in need of new members, and we are asking for more of our parishioners to join us in our ministry.

We assist those in need; the poor, the forgotten, those struggling to support themselves and their families. The Members of our ministry visit those in our area that contact us for assistance. We do home visits in pairs, just as the apostles were sent out in twos. We listen to those in need and we provide assistance with rent, electricity, and food, but more important we listen to their problems and concerns, suggest resolutions, pray with them, and give hope.

Since we are in contact with children and the elderly, there is a required background check, protecting God's children training, and clearance from the dioceses.

Training is provided prior to making home visits. Experienced members will take the lead until new members are comfortable in making home visits.

We meet twice a month, the second and fourth Tuesday of each month at 6:45 P.M. at the Family Life Center.

Please contact our President, Don Zehnder at 904 316-1168 if you are interested in joining us or if you want more information on how you can help.

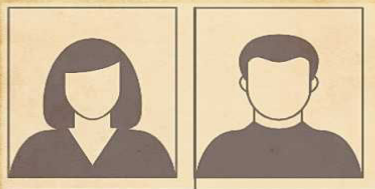

THANK YOU SPRING CLEANERS!!!
