Stewardship and Service

It is always exciting to see young people step up in service to the Lord...and there is nothing more precious than serving Our Lord on the Altar. Last Sunday at the 11:00 am Mass we welcomed 9 new Altars Servers who were commissioned.

Congratulations...

CONGRATULATIONS TO NEW EXTRAORDARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION

Last Saturday at the 5 pm Mass some of our brothers and sisters were commissioned as Extraordinary

Ministers of Holy Communion and are entrusted with administering the Eucharist, with taking communion to the sick and with giving it as viaticum to the dying. Please join me in congratulating our new EMHCs, Rhonda Flemming, Kathleen Guthrie, Jackie Ranck, John Luciano, Patricia Lockett, Caroline Moneyhan, Anne Barrow, Dennis Kasten, Denise Stiles-Yount, Maria Page, Amanda Mabutas, Lydia Garcia, Leonida Velasco, Halie Rash, Susan Rudgick

May the saving mysteries they distribute lead them and our community to the joys of eternal life.

The Diocese of St. Augustine treats all allegations of sexual misconduct seriously and deals with all allegations in a prompt, confidential and thorough manner.

Letter From Our Pastor

Beloved Parishioners,

Let us welcome the Spirit

Today we celebrate one of the “big three” solemnities in the liturgical year: Pentecost. Pentecost stands tall along with Jesus’ birth and resurrection. And Pentecost is our Patronal Feast. God’s great love and care again manifests itself on this Feast of Pentecost. The dwelling of Holy Spirit in us is central to our spirituality.

You know, love is the life of the heart. The Holy Spirit who has been given to us pours divine love into our hearts. The Spirit is like a fountain of living water that flows into every part of our hearts so as to spread its grace. Grace has the power to entice our hearts. Through the Holy Spirit, God awakens and enlivens our hearts to their own good. It’s like new life. I mean Jesus announces the new creation.

As God breathed life into Adam, so Jesus breathes new life into his disciples – the gift of the Holy Spirit. As they breathe in the Spirit, they are able to receive and give forgiveness.

St. Luke describes the coming of the Spirit in more dramatic fashion. As the Spirit descends as tongues of fire on the disciples, they begin to make bold proclamation of the Good News in an astounding way.

The same Spirit is given to each of us at our Baptism, and his presence has been strengthened in Confirmation. St. Paul points that that we are one in the Body of Christ because we all share the one Spirit.

Each of us has special gifts that have been given to us as a way of manifesting the Spirit’s presence in us. Our gifts are given, not for our own good, but for the good of others; when we use our gifts for others, we witness to our oneness in Christ. No one’s gift or ministry or work is more important than anyone else’s; all are needed for the unity of the community of the Church.

Each of us is important because each brings a gift or talent or way of working that no one else can bring to the group. We all lose something when an individual person’s gifts are not welcomed or used in the community.

That’s why a welcoming attitude is so important in the Church community. It’s also why forgiveness is so important among us. We need one another in order to experience the full wonder of God’s love for us.

As we celebrate this feast of new life, our breathing can be a graced reminder. The Spirit is as close to each of us as our very breath, taken deeply into our lungs thousands of times every day, a constant life-giving force.

As we exhale, the Spirit’s power directs us outward to our mission - spreading the love, peace and forgiveness we have inhaled from the risen Lord Jesus.

Father, may I experience a new Pentecost in my life and be transformed.

In Christ’s Love,

Father Amar Nagothu, M.S.F.S

God's Spirit renews the earth.

The season of Easter concludes with today's celebration, the feast of Pentecost. On Pentecost we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles gathered in the upper room in Jerusalem; this event marks the beginning of the Church. The story of Pentecost is found in the Acts of the Apostles, today's first reading. The account in today's Gospel, taken from the Gospel of John, also recounts how Jesus gave the gift of the Holy Spirit to his disciples.

There is no need to try to reconcile these two accounts to each other. It is enough to know that, after his death, Jesus fulfilled his promise to send to his disciples a helper, an advocate, who would enable them to be his witnesses throughout the world.

DIVINE MERCY PRAYER @ THREE O'CLOCK

The Chaplet of Divine Mercy will continue to be said in the Church at 3:00pm and 3:30pm on ALL Fridays. Please join us.

Prayer leaflets, and rosaries will be provided.

We encourage everyone to say the Divine Mercy Chaplet at 3:00 in the afternoon. But if you are unable to say the Chaplet for whatever reason, why not say the Divine Mercy 3:00 Prayer?

The prayer is short and to the point. It reminds us of our Lord's Passion for us, and His great Mercy and Love for us.

And the Divine Mercy Three o' Clock Prayer can be easily memorized.

Also why not set an alarm for a minute between 3P-4P in the afternoon?

Vocations Schmocations

Two men considering a religious vocation were having a conversation.

"What is similar about the Jesuit and Dominican Orders?" the one asked.

The second replied, "Well, they were both founded by Spaniards -- St. Dominic for the Dominicans, and St. Ignatius of Loyola for the Jesuits. They were also both founded to combat heresy -- the Dominicans to fight the Albigensians, and the Jesuits to fight the Protestants."

"Ok, so what is different about the Jesuit and Dominican Orders?"

"Met any Albigensians lately?"
