Pentecost Mass & Luncheon

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

Letter From Our Pastor

Dear Parishioners, I would like to express my gratitude to you; so many of you have spent countless hours and volunteer time helping to put together our parish festival 'International Feast' and make it an overwhelming success. I have seen the cooperation of so many of our parishioners who spent many weeks of planning and organizing, and so many details, many have worked really hard to make sure that everything was taken care of and all of you joyfully participated and brought life to the celebration. I especially want to thank Ray Stiles for organizing the liturgy and Sandy Coleman for organizing the international lunch.

As we approach the solemnity of Corpus Christi, I encourage you to make plans to join us for the "Eucharistic Procession". We will have our parish's annual Corpus Christi Procession following the 11:00 a.m. Mass on Sunday, June 23. Please plan now to join us!

You know, we have all wrestled with the question: "What is God really like? If you are confused, it is a perfectly normal reaction. It is impossible to fathom our infinite God. The ancient Jews had an idea. Realizing the impossibility of comprehending God, they would not even speak the word "Yahweh," God. They used a substitute word, "Adonai," to emphasize their awe before God

Jesus knew he could not give his disciples an explanation. Instead, he spoke of relationships and reassured them that the Holy Spirit would guide them "into all truth." in other words, the mystery of God does not preclude that we can grow in our understanding of relationship with god as Abba, Jesus the word made flesh, and the holy spirit

Our God is revealed in John's letter as "love" - a unity of three persons in relationship. In very early Christianity, origin of the use of the word "person" came from ancient theatre where one actor wore several masks for the different persons he played. So, God could be said to be one, yet somehow three persons. That we are made in his image means that we are rational, relational and loving.

Today's feast also reminds us that we cannot be rugged individualists; that is against our relational nature. We are children of our father; therefore, we are brothers and sisters to one another, interrelated with our God and our families, friends, church community, and the world.

So, how do we grow in our understanding of God? Doctrines and dogmas can help us to begin to learn about God being a three-person community of love, but it is only in experiencing God, experiencing his love for us as persons that we finally "get it."

I mean, it is in growing in understanding God's working in our life. That builds relationship. I thank God in my own words for the wonderful people that are in my life. I see the love, the goodness, the generosity, and the compassion of the Trinity in you. You lead me into closer relationship with our God, and I hope that I am helpful in your growth.

As we grow in experience of God's love for us, we are moved and enabled to love and care about others. God intends Trinitarian love to flow from God to us, but also to flow out from us to all whose lives we touch. Our God's credibility is dependent on whether love and unity are seen in us to attract non-believers to god and to our community.

In Christ's Love,

Father Amar Nagothu, M.S.F.S

DIVINE MERCY PRAYER @ THREE O'CLOCK

The Chaplet of Divine Mercy will continue to be said in the Church at 3:00pm and 3:30pm on ALL Fridays.
Please join us.

Prayer leaflets, and rosaries will be provided.

We encourage everyone to say the Divine Mercy Chaplet at 3:00 in the afternoon.
But if you are unable to say the Chaplet for whatever reason, why not say the Divine Mercy 3:00 Prayer?

The prayer is short and to the point. It reminds us of our Lord's Passion for us, and His great Mercy and Love for us.

And the Divine Mercy Three o' Clock Prayer can be easily memorized.

Also why not set an alarm for a minute between 3P-4P in the afternoon?

GETTING TO KNOW..... OUR SEMINARIAN!

Hello! My name is Justin Motes, and I'm a seminarian for the Diocese of St. Augustine, Fl. I'm 21 years old, the youngest of two sisters, and I'm from Statesboro, GA.

A little about my faith life:

I grew up in the Baptist Church as I would accompany my grandmother to church every Sunday. I was baptized at 7 years of age. When I was around 12 or 13, I began to grow an interest in the Catholic Church inspired by a pursuit for truth. I began attending Mass and speaking with my local priest. My mother was so great that she took me to RCIA and Mass every Sunday! My parents were surprisingly supportive of this decision. I converted when I was 14, being received at the 2012 Easter Vigil.

Since then, I have always discerned a vocation to priesthood. I entered the seminary right away after high school. I just graduated with my Bachelors of Philosophy from the Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C., and I expect to return for one more year to receive my Licentiate of Philosophy (master's degree) before beginning my studies in Sacred Theology.

Please pray for me!
WELCOME JUSTIN!!
