26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Keep the commandment without stain or reproach until the appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ.
— 1 Timothy 6:14

*Show me your hands. Do they have scars from giving? Show me your feet. Are they wounded in service? Show me your heart.
Have you left a place for divine love?*

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

Throughout the Diocese, many parishes are adopting a program called "Adopt A Day," committing to stand in front of an abortion clinic in Jacksonville during a specific time & day to pray for the women and unborn babies. Our location is A Woman's Choice at 4131 University Blvd. S.

Holy Spirit's Respect Life group will stand the second Saturday of each month from 10am-12pm. We will use the same peaceful signs used for 40 Days for Life (in shed behind Women's Help Center), and please park at Prince of Peace Catholic Church around the corner on Bennett Rd.

The Daughters of Divine Mercy Circle Prayer Blanket Ministry

Lap sized blankets are available for those facing life's more difficult challenges. Blankets can be obtained after all weekend Masses through the Church's gift shop, weekdays through the Church office or by directly contacting the Prayer Blanket Ministry

This Ministry is also available to come to the bedside of those who are sick and dying to pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet for them.

Please contact the Prayer Blanket Ministry for more information.

A WALK THROUGH THE MASS: A STEP-BY-STEP EXPLANATION

Part four: The Concluding Rites - Commissioning

The fourth part of the Mass is the Concluding Rites which consist of announcements (if required), the final or solemn blessing, the dismissal, the procession and recessional chant.

Concluding Rites prepare us to be sent back out into the world to live the Gospel. We prepare to go back to that world in which we will live for the coming week. The burdens we have laid down at the door of the church for this Eucharist, we know we must now bear again—but now strengthened by this Eucharist and this community.

At the beginning of the Mass, we are asked to “let us pray”. At its conclusion, we are instructed to “Let us act” - as people touched by the Lord.

The Announcements: A parish community gathers for more than the celebration of Sunday Eucharist. Prior to be dismissed, announcements can be made to inform the congregation of various events and activities taking place in the parish. The announcements are to be brief, made only when necessary and usually by the priest. In most parishes, general announcements are made as part of the welcome at the beginning of Mass, while more important announcements are made by the priest following the Prayer after Communion.

The priest again says, “The Lord be with you”—the ritual phrase serves now as a farewell.

The Final or Solemn Blessing: Before dismissing the people, the priest offers them God’s blessing. A blessing is a sign of God’s protection over our lives and activities for the coming week. It is also a reminder that God walks with us in our journey of life. On Solemnities, the final blessing takes a more solemn form when the deacon invites the people to bow their heads and a threefold blessing is prayed over the people by the priest. When a Bishop offers the blessing, he always makes the Sign of the Cross three times as he mentions the Persons of the Trinity.

The Dismissal: The Dismissal is the final dialogue of the Mass and is begun by the deacon if present, who sends the people forth from Mass into the world. We leave the assembly and the church building—but we carry something with us. What happens in our lives during the week gives deeper meaning to the ritual actions we have celebrated at Mass, whether it’s family, work with poor or just plain work. It is only in relation to our daily lives that the full meaning of the ritual actions of the Mass becomes clear to us.

The Procession: Following the dismissal, the priest and deacon once again show reverence for the altar by kissing it, just as they did upon entering the sanctuary at the beginning of Mass. The kissing of the altar is a sign of honor to the Lord for the sacrifice he made upon the cross, which is now made present to us on the altar. They then genuflect to the Blessed Sacrament in the tabernacle and process down the aisle with the altar servers.

Just as in the procession at the beginning of Mass, this procession reminds the people that the priest is the shepherd of the parish community, who journeys with them in the struggles and joys of life. Out of respect for the priest who represents Christ the Good Shepherd and to maintain order and decorum in the church, the faithful never leave before the altar servers and priest have first exited the church.

The Recessional Chant/Hymn: Although a recessional chant is not necessary, when it is sung, it does form the final part of the Mass and accompanies the procession of the servers and the priest out of the church, therefore none of the faithful should ever leave the church before the recessional chant/hymn has concluded so that they may fully participate in the celebration of Mass.

Personal Prayer: Following the conclusion of the recessional chant, it is customary for all the faithful to kneel and pray silently in thanksgiving for God’s blessings and for the grace to live the Gospel during the coming week. After this time of personal prayer, the faithful depart the church to joyfully live out the Gospel with renewed faith, hope and charity.

During Jesus’ walk to Emmaus with two disciples, they invited him to come and stay with them. He did. During their meal together, “their eyes were opened” and they recognized who he really was—the risen Messiah. Later when he disappeared from their midst, they said to each other: “Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened for us the scriptures?” (Lk 24:13-32). May our hearts burn within us as we listen to God’s Word, and the eyes of our souls be opened so that we recognize the awesome gift we receive at Mass.
