OFFERTORY GIFTS NEEDED

Offertory Gifts Needed for Parishes to Continue Ministries

It would be difficult to overstate how challenging these days have been for all of us, as we face the various effects of the COVID-19 crisis on our families, jobs, and communities.

Among the most dramatic ways we've had to adjust to this pandemic is the suspension of Holy Mass and refraining from gathering as a community. And while the public celebration of Mass has been suspended, the work of the church goes on.

The crisis is having a significant financial and economic impact on us all. Our inability to gather each week at Mass also means your parish is unable to receive your offertory gift there, and it can't be stressed enough how vital this support is to the parish and the people who work there.

Parish and school operating budgets depend on this revenue to pay employees and all the other monthly expenses associated with running the church. We don't have large sums in reserve. Your continued support of your parish is crucial now.

Please visit the online giving page <https://giving.parishsoft.com/app/giving/holy1166175> and set up your regular contributions to your parish as soon as possible. Of course, you may also mail your offertory gift to the parish. Either option will be greatly appreciated; however, the online giving option enables you to make a recurring gift that will provide your parish greater financial stability during this crisis and in the future.

Many of our people also are in financial hardship because of this crisis. If your circumstances prohibit you from giving now, we understand completely and pray that your situation improves very soon. If you are in urgent need of help, please call the parish office @ 904-641-7244.

Thank you for your prayers, your faithfulness, and your support. May the Lord bless and keep each of you and your loved ones during this challenging time.

Did you know with the help of a Step Up For Students scholarship, you could afford to send your child to a Catholic school near you?

Step Up For Students has scholarship programs for Florida schoolchildren, including scholarships for children from lower-income families and for children with certain special needs.

Special Needs Scholarship

The Gardiner Scholarship helps Florida families customize education for their children with certain special needs who are ages 3 through 22. The scholarship covers 17 diagnoses, including autism spectrum disorder, Down syndrome, intellectual disability, spina bifida and traumatic brain injury. Parents can use scholarship money toward a combination of approved programs and providers that best meet their children's unique learning needs.

Income-Based Scholarships

Two scholarships are available for lower-income students: the Florida Tax Credit Scholarship and Family Empowerment Scholarship. Both scholarships give students an option to find the best schools to meet their K-12 learning needs.

To learn more or apply, visit www.StepUpForStudents.org/catholic.

Program funds are limited and are available on a first-come, first-served basis.

From our Pastor's Desk

It is my sincere prayer and hope that you and your loved ones are safe and healthy during these difficult times. During this crisis, we need to be highly informed in the “natural,” while we listen in the “spiritual,” asking “What is God saying during this time?” and “What is God doing during this time?” We do not want to miss the lessons we are to learn during this “grand global pause.”

Fourth Sunday of Easter is often called “Good Shepherd Sunday,” referring, of course, to Jesus. The Gospel reading speaks of Jesus as the shepherd who calls his sheep by name and leads them out to pasture. He is also the gate of the sheepfold. All who enter through him will “have life and have it more abundantly.”

In those days, flocks of sheep were kept overnight in a common enclosure; the walls were stone - and high enough that the top was beyond the claws and the jaws of the wolves and other predators that prowled the countryside. Such is the case, even today. At nightfall each shepherd leads his sheep into the sheepfold. In the morning, the shepherd leads his flock out again. The sheep know the sound of the shepherd's voice.

A visitor to the Holy Land asked why there were not gates to the sheepfolds. The guide replied, “That is an easy one; that is where the shepherds sleep.” The sheep gate and the shepherd are one and the same.

The shepherd is the only defense for the sheep. He remains at the most vulnerable point. He lies down between the sheep and any predators - to protect them and even possibly to give his life for them.

Our relationship with Jesus allows us a place of refuge, a place where we will always find nourishment and safety. Jesus has called us by name, so we are able then to recognize his voice.

What does that mean in terms of our daily living? Jesus is the Good Shepherd who knows us by name, and he wants us to know him in the same way that he knows his Father, and his Father knows him. He knows and loves us intimately, and he gives us the grace to know and love him in the same way.

We learn to do this by taking the time each day to listen to his voice. He speaks to us in the Scriptures, in our worship, in our personal prayer, and in the people and events that are part of our daily lives. St. Francis de Sales calls this process learning to let Jesus live in us. As we let ourselves be led by the voice of Jesus.

Jesus lives in us more and more - and the new life that he shares with us becomes the source from which we live each day. The power that flows from his death and rising transforms our self-centeredness into out-reaching love for one another. More and more, we become the love of God incarnated in our world.

Because we hear Jesus' voice, we are able to be more patient in our suffering. We are able to look at Jesus' own experience of suffering and learn from him how to accept our own. He left us an example. He trusted in his Father's love for him and knew that his Father was with him no matter what he was doing. He listened for his Father's voice and found refuge in his love.

In the sacrament of Baptism, Jesus called us by name and made us part of his flock. What a wonderful gift we have been given in our baptism! May we learn to take hold of that gift each day and nurture its growth through prayer and generous love. Let us take joy in the fact that Jesus is leading us to abundance of life with him - an abundance that will be complete in eternity.

The Pope Composes (2) Prayers for End of Pandemic to be Recited after Rosary.

Pope Francis asked Catholics to make a special effort in May to pray the rosary, knowing that by doing so they will be united with believers around the world asking for Mary's intercession in stopping the coronavirus pandemic.

First Prayer

O Mary,
You shine continuously on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope.
We entrust ourselves to you,
Health of the Sick,
who, at the foot of the cross,
were united with Jesus' suffering,
and persevered in your faith.

“Protectress of the Roman people”,
you know our needs,
and we know that you will provide,
so that, as at Cana in Galilee,
joy and celebration may return
after this time of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love,
to conform ourselves to the will of the Father
and to do what Jesus tells us.
For he took upon himself our suffering,
and burdened himself with our sorrows
to bring us, through the cross,
to the joy of the Resurrection.
Amen.

*We fly to your protection,
O Holy Mother of God;
Do not despise our petitions
in our necessities,
but deliver us always
from every danger,
O Glorious and Blessed Virgin.*

COVID -19 TIPS

COVID - 19 & YOU

STAY HOME.
SAVE LIVES.

Help stop coronavirus

Outbreaks can be stressful

The outbreak of coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) may be stressful for people. Fear and anxiety about a disease can be overwhelming and cause strong emotions in adults and children. Coping with stress will make you, the people you care about, and your community stronger.

Stress during an infectious disease outbreak can include

- Fear and worry about your own health and the health of your loved ones
- Changes in sleep or eating patterns
- Difficulty sleeping or concentrating
- Worsening of chronic health problems
- Worsening of mental health conditions
- Increased use of alcohol, tobacco, or other drugs

Everyone reacts differently to stressful situations

How you respond to the outbreak can depend on your background, the things that make you different from other people, and the community you live in.

People who may respond more strongly to the stress of a crisis include

- ◆ Older people and people with chronic diseases who are at higher risk for severe illness from COVID-19
- ◆ Children and teens
- ◆ People who are helping with the response to COVID-19, like doctors, other health care providers, and first responders
- ◆ People who have mental health conditions including problems with substance use

Take care of yourself and your community

Taking care of yourself, your friends, and your family can help you cope with stress. Helping others cope with their stress can also make your community stronger.

Ways to cope with stress

- Take breaks from watching, reading, or listening to news stories, including social media. Hearing about the pandemic repeatedly can be upsetting.
- Take care of your body.
- Take deep breaths, stretch, or meditate.
- Try to eat healthy, well-balanced meals.
- Exercise regularly, get plenty of sleep.
- Avoid alcohol and drugs.
- Make time to unwind. Try to do some other activities you enjoy.
- Connect with others. Talk with people you trust about your concerns and how you are feeling..

ATTENTION

An important reminder to be particularly vigilant and protective with your personal information and financial resources during this difficult time.

Nothing brings out the scammers like “free money,” and the recent decision on Economic Impact Payments (or “Stimulus Checks”) being sent out by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) as tax credit under The “Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act” or the “CARES Act” has scammers already coming up with schemes to defraud taxpayers and small businesses of their money and important personal identification data. Specifically, identity thieves are using confusion over the stimulus checks and associated bank loans. They are also appealing to faith groups and individuals offering special aid for churches that are scams and Catholics are prime targets.

When it comes to the IRS and taxes, remember that the IRS will never:

- Call to demand immediate payment over the phone, nor will the agency call about taxes owed without first having mailed you a bill.
 - Threaten to immediately bring in local police or other law-enforcement groups to have you arrested.
 - Demand that you pay taxes without allowing you to question or appeal the amount they say you owe.
 - Require you to use a specific payment method for your taxes, such as a prepaid debit card, gift card, or wire transfer.
 - Ask for credit or debit card numbers over the phone.
- If you should be contacted by anyone representing the IRS (or anyone representing a government agency) and looking for your personal information, suspicion is warranted. When in doubt, assume it's a scam.
