The kingdom of heaven

is like a merchant
searching for fine pearls.
When he finds a
pearl of great price,
he goes and sells all
that he has and buys it.

The kingdom of heaven

is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all he has and buys that field.

Matthew 13:44

Did you know??

Solidarity refers to the friendship or "social charity" that exists among people. It is manifested in the distribution of goods and the remuneration for work and presupposes the effort for a more just society. We are called to stand in solidarity with others, but especially with the poor and vulnerable. (CCC 1939-1940)

From Our Pastor's Desk

Best Wishes: We wish our seminarian Filippo Schiavo many blessings as he goes back to seminary. He has been with us for the past two months for his summer assignment. Now he will be going back to St. John Maria Vianney College Seminary, Miami. He will continue his fourth-year college in Philosophy. On behalf of Holy Spirit family, I wish him all the best and many blessings.

Parochial Vicar: We are overjoyed to announce that Bishop Felipe Estevez sends Fr. Gil Hernandez Pozo to Holy Spirit. Fr. Gil will begin his role as Parochial Vicar at Holy Spirit on July 27, 2020. Fr. Gil is from Cuba. He is the priest of the Diocese of Santa Clara, Cuba. We are pleased to welcome him to Holy Spirit. Give him a big Holy Spirit welcome at Mass!

What an opportunity? Tell me who isn't searching for the pearl of great price. Everyone is. We all want a great life. We all want or wanted to get the most out of life. Have any of us found the treasure hidden in a field?

Tell me again; is what we read in the Gospel true? Is it really true? If it is then it is worth more than any pearl. Some of us just stumbled on the treasure too. We were born into a family where we came to know Jesus. Some of us have problem that we have the treasure and think it is scrap! We even give away! Others that they know the pearl is valuable but aren't willing to sell everything/anything and buy it. It involves a hardship which they don't want to suffer.

The pearl and the treasure aren't things! They are a Person. The Person is Jesus Christ. Jesus is real. He has died but has risen from the dead and is among us. We can't see him with our eyes but that doesn't mean it is impossible to come into real and vibrant contact with him. It certainly is possible. The first of the gifts of the Holy Spirit are wisdom and understanding. Both of these are necessary to know and touch Jesus today.

Jesus offers us his friendship and the person with wisdom and understanding will realize that here lies the great life he has been seeking. After all, if you can't find a great life in the friendship of your Creator, then where will you find it? Everything comes from him and the happiness, the fulfillment, joy and peace I long for will necessarily be found in him. It makes solid sense to drop everything else and make this friendship the goal of my life.

If you cannot find God, guess who's lost.

"That they should seek God, if happily they may feel after Him or find Him, although He be not far from every one of us: For in Him we live, and move, and are; as some also of your own poets said: For we are also His offspring."

Acts 17:27-28

What must you do? Pray earnestly to the Holy Spirit. May he give the supreme gift of wisdom. You will then want to find Jesus in your life. You will make the search your life work. Don't think you know where he is. He has a habit of springing surprises. You will make the reading of his word and learn more to discover him in the ordinary every day affairs of life. You will experience a great thirst for him and Psalm 63 will become your anthem: "O Lord, you are my God; it is you I seek; for you my body longs and my soul thirsts. Your love is better than life".

DIOCESE OF ST. AUGUSTINE

Office of the Bishop

July 10, 2020

Dear Parishioners,

On the weekend of August 1-2, the annual national collection to support Black and Indian Mission work in our country will be held.

This collection is the oldest national collection for the Catholic Church in the United States – first held in 1884. It supports evangelization efforts throughout our country that serve African-American and Native American Catholic parishes and missions, as well as schools and ministries that serve our brothers and sisters. Even more, the collection supports outreach to non-Catholics in the areas served by the Church in so many communities.

In our own diocese, St. Pius parish, established in 1919 – and its school, established in 1921 – has benefitted from the national collection. Today, St. Pius School is now part of the Guardian Catholic School where it serves 400 students, mostly non-Catholic students, and, like all Catholic schools, has an excellent record for student performance and accomplishment.

Years ago, our own Sisters of St. Joseph who came to our diocese at the invitation of Bishop Augustin Verot in September, 1866 were charged with the education of African-American children. Sisters were even arrested for teaching African-American children. Saint Katherine Drexel, who founded the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament, even funded the establishment of St. Benedict Parish and School in St. Augustine which today is a mission of our Cathedral Parish.

In one of the alternate Eucharistic prayers – we ask that the Father would enable us to be attentive to the pain and anguish – the hopes and fears of others – so that we may walk with them on the ways of the kingdom – a fitting petition for us all now. Even as we all deal with the difficulties and challenges face in daily life because of the COVID 19 pandemic, we have all seen through the media the fact that an undercurrent of racism persists in our country and in the entire world.

Letter from Bishop Felipe J. Estévez, S.T.D

I write to ask that you vigorously support the National Collection for Black and Indian Missions more so than ever before – that everyone in our diocese open our hearts at this time with great generosity and love as we all ensure that our Catholic Church remains at the forefront in efforts to address so many needs.

I know that second collections are difficult these days logistically – but I am asking our pastors to work out ways to enable this special second collection to be enormously successful this year.

Be assured of my remembrance of you and your intentions at my daily Mass. With best regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Most Reverend Felipe J. Estévez, S.T.D.
Bishop of St. Augustine

IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA

DISCERNMENT RETREAT

St. Ignatius came from a family of minor nobility in Spain's northern Basque region. One thing to know about Ignatius is that he was far from saintly during much of his young adult life. He was vain, with dreams of personal honor and fame. He gambled and was not above sword fighting. As some have noted, he might have been the only saint with a notarized police record: for taking part in a nighttime brawl.

All that began to change one day in the spring of 1521. Ignatius was 30 years old at the time, an officer in the Spanish army. Leading his fellow soldiers into a battle against the French that they were sure to lose, he was struck by a cannonball in the leg. During a difficult recovery (he limped for the rest of his life), the young man asked for books about chivalry — his favorite reading. There weren't any at the family castle where he convalesced. He had to settle for a book about the life of Christ and biographies of the saints — which he found unexpectedly riveting.

St. Ignatius had always dreamed of imitating heroic deeds, but now, the heroes had names like Francis of Assisi and Catherine of Siena. Ignatius also noticed something strange happening to him. God, he realized, was working within him — prompting, guiding, inviting. As he traveled far and wide, he realized too that God was similarly at work in the lives of all people, in the everyday events of the world.

These experiences would prove to be the beginnings of Ignatian spirituality — and Jesuit ministry. While in Paris, Ignatius gathered around him some friends or "companions," as they became known. Together they made religious vows in 1534 and came to call themselves the Compañia de Jesús — the Society of Jesus. Six years later, the order was granted official approval by the pope.

The early Jesuits fanned out to the metropolises of Europe and beyond. They did so with instructions from Ignatius, their leader in Rome, to "seek the greater glory of God" and the good of all humanity. They devoted themselves to the care of souls, to helping people discern God's presence in their lives.

Most of all, Ignatius Loyola wanted his Jesuits and everyone to go out and "find God in all things." He died in 1556 — on July 31, which is his feast day in the Catholic Church.

-Adaptation from Ignatian Spirituality.

"Take courage; get up, he is calling you." (Mk 10:46)
