God in Christ reveals that his mercy does not abandon us to guilt but causes us, like Lazarus to come forth from the grave of our sin and find in his forgiveness the chance to live again. In the sacrament of Reconciliation, God's merciful plan gives us a living encounter with his presence, which is forgiveness and mercy. Through the ministry of the Church, we hear the very voice of Christ declaring, "Go in peace. Your sins are forgiven."

FROM OUR PASTOR'S DESK

ALL YOU NEED IS TO WANT TO BE ONE

The feast of all saints is called the feast of All Hallowed or all holy people. The word hallowed comes from the word holy, and the word holy means “to separate”. The ancestry of the word can be traced back to an ancient word which means “to cut”. To be holy, then, is to be cut above the norm, superior, extraordinary. The holy one dwells on a different level from the rest of us. What frightens us does not frighten the holy one. What troubles us does not trouble him/her.

Thomas Merton (1915-1968) is one of the most influential American Catholic authors of the twentieth century. Shortly after he converted to Catholicism in the late 1930s, Thomas Merton was walking the streets of New York with his friend, Robert Lax. Lax was Jewish, and he asked Merton what he wanted to be, now that he was Catholic. “I don’t know,” Merton replied, adding simply that he wanted to be a good Catholic. Lax stopped him in his tracks. “What you should say,” he told him, “is that you want to be a saint!”

Merton was dumbfounded. “How do you expect me to become saint?” Merton asked him. Lax said: “All that is necessary to be saint is to want to be one. Don’t you believe that God will make you what He created you to be, if you will consent to let him do it? All you have to do is desire it.” Thomas Merton knew his friend was right.

The words of Robert Lax speak so simply and profoundly to our calling as Catholic Christians. You should want to be a Saint. And to be one, all you need is to want to be one. Of course, if you only want to be an average Christian that is probably all you will ever be. Everyone can do just enough to get by. It is not hard. But the message of Christ is an invitation to be something more. It is an invitation to be all that you can be. Be a Saint.

If they, why not I? —If these men and women could become saints, why cannot I with the help of Him who is all-powerful?

ST. AUGUSTINE OF HIPPO

If anyone has any doubts how to become a saint, gospel according to Matthew today is a helpful how-to guide. We know it better as ‘The Beatitudes’. “Blessed are...” With those two words Jesus begins a beautiful instruction in how to live the life of a saint.

Pope Benedict, in his remarkable book “Jesus of Nazareth” says, that the beatitudes is a portrait of what all of us should aspire to. Saints knew their role in the beatitudes. Saints are people who knew they were spiritually poor. They knew that they could not solve their problems alone. Saints knew that they are sinners and have proved that any sinner can be a saint. In fact, only a sinner can be a saint.

What does it take to become a saint? As Robert Lax said: “All that is necessary to become a saint is to want to become one.” And God will do the rest. Do you want to be one?

Have a wonderful and bless week!

HONORING OUR VETERANS

Quilts for Vets Ministry

Honoring our Veterans—One Quilt at a Time

Created to honor veterans for their selfless service, Quilts for Vets held their first patriotic quilt give-away in November of 2017. Since then, 61 veterans have been recognized and honored with quilts.

Each quilt is unique. Handmade by a small dedicated group of parishioners in appreciation for all the sacrifices our vets and active duty service men and women make while serving. Every stitch is our “thank you” to those who keep us safe and protect the freedoms we enjoy today.

We would like to acknowledge and thank the following:

- Fr. Amar for his support and blessings
- Guest speakers for sharing their thoughts and insights in military service
- Our choir
- Our rosary makers
- Our photographer
- Our veterans and their families

If you have an interest in joining this Ministry, please contact Diane St. Laurent at 904-220-9199 or via e-mail at: Stlaurent819@hotmail.com.

Thanks to all those who participated in the Knights of Columbus Annual Charity Golf Tournament! Looks like these guys had a ton of fun!! For more pictures, visit our website, www.holyspiritchurchjax.org

FEEDING THE HUNGRY

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Once again, Knights of Columbus Council 11069 is seeking your support in the important corporal work of mercy of "FEEDING THE HUNGRY" as they begin collecting canned goods and food staples to be distributed to those in need in our community over this year's Thanksgiving and Christmas Holidays. Knights and Boy Scouts will be outside the church after the vigil Mass on October 31 and both Masses on November 1 distributing grocery bags which they hope you will take and return the following weekend (November 7 or 8) filled with items to be used in assembling boxes for this year's holidays. Monetary contributions will also be accepted on these dates for this humanitarian undertaking. Your generosity over the previous years has enabled the Council to deliver a large number of food boxes over the two holidays. Your continued generous support of this undertaking will be greatly appreciated.
