God in Christ reveals that his mercy does not abandon us to guilt but causes us, like Lazarus to come forth from the grave of our sins and find forgiveness the chance to live again. In the sacrament of Reconciliation, God's merciful plan gives us a living encounter with his presence, which is forgiveness and mercy. Through the ministry of the Church, we hear the very voice of Christ declaring, "Go in peace. Your sins are forgiven."

A very special "THANK YOU" goes out to all parishioners, members of the Knights of Columbus and all others who contributed their time and effort to the Free Food Giveaways over the past several weeks. Your valuable participation contributed to the smooth, orderly and efficient functioning of these events and we are deeply grateful to all who participated.

FROM OUR PASTOR'S DESK

PATIENCE TO WAIT:

There were ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish in that they took their lamps, but brought no oil with them. The other five were wise, they brought flasks of oil with their lamps. The bridegroom got delayed in his coming and they became drowsy and fell asleep.

It is not that easy to wait.

To wait is not actually a big deal but why is it that it becomes such a hard thing for us to do? Well, in our time where information technology rules, everything becomes fast and easy? Internet, smart phones, emails, ATMs, EZ pass, express lane, self-checkout, text and instant messages, etc., make everything quick and easy for us.

Even the food that we eat and the beverages we drink are instant – instant noodles, instant coffee and those microwavable dinners. These things are cool and good but we do not notice how they put us always in haste. Consequently, we want everything to be fast. Apparently, we don't have the patience to wait. The kids cannot wait until Christmas to open gifts. Many people buy lottery tickets because they want to get rich instantly.

Some cannot wait for their promotion. We want instant success. We want instant popularity. Many motorists drive over the speed limit without realizing its danger. We become impatient when things don't get right away. We become compulsive and we want to accomplish lot of things. We want to get to the top right ahead.

We are never satisfied and we keep on craving for more. Our excitement is short-lived. We easily get tired of everything. We get upset when we don't get our way. We want quick-fix solutions to our problems. We cannot tolerate boredom. We easily become frustrated when we fail.

We focus too much on our schedule without giving time to appreciate the simple beauty of life. We run too fast to reach the finish line but we forget to look at the goal why we are running. We have too many tasks to accomplish but we have too little time do it. Everything must be fast, fast and fast.

There was a farmer who took delight in his farm. He ploughed and sowed special seed and did all he could to enrich his harvest. After a few weeks he began to wonder why in his neighbor's field the grain grew taller than his own. This worried him. Suddenly he got a bright idea. He ran to his farm and began to pull the blades of growing grain out of the ground a bit to make them look taller. On his way home, he met his neighbor and told him what he had done. Both of them hurried back to field to see if the new idea had worked. They were shocked to see that the entire field was withered and wilted.

This is an example of a man who has no patience to wait. Our impatience could incite us to make foolish decisions and actions. It could affect our relationship. In our desire to become rich and successful we may forget our family. It could also affect our prayer life. We cannot spend longer time in prayer and savor the presence of the Lord. It could also affect our self-esteem. We only feel good about ourselves when we accomplish something.

Patience is a great virtue. The book of Proverbs says: "It is better to be patient than be powerful. It is better to win control over yourself than the whole city" (16: 32).

Have a Blessed week.
