Advent!

ADVENT RECONCILIATION

In addition to our Wednesdays & Saturdays reconciliation, we will also be having reconciliation every Friday from 6:00pm – 7:00pm during Advent (3 Fridays) with the Holy Hour of Adoration.

The Advent season is a time of preparation, it directs our hearts and minds to Christ's second coming at the end of time and also to the anniversary of the Lord's birth on Christmas. The final days of Advent, from December 17 to December 24, focus particularly on our preparation for the celebrations of the Nativity of our Lord (Christmas).

Advent devotions including the Advent wreath, reminds us of the meaning of the season. The Advent calendar below can help you fully enter in to the season with daily activity and prayer suggestions to prepare you spiritually for the birth of Jesus Christ.

ADVENT CALENDAR 2020

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
6	7	8	9	10	11	12
The Second Sunday of Advent Today, churches hold a special collection for retired religious. Pray for these dedicated servants of Christ as you light the second violet candle on your Advent wreath.	Today is the Memorial of St. Ambrose, one of the Doctors of the Church. He baptized St. Augustine and is the patron saint of catechumens. Today, pray for those seeking to join the Church.	On this Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, attend Mass and pray the Hall Mary before meals. As Mary is also the patroness of the U.S., take time to pray for our country today.	This year has been challenging for many. Bring joy to someone today. Text or call a friend, help a stranger in need, or share today's Gospel with your loved ones.	Walking with Moms in Need encourages us to "walk in the shoes" of local pregnant and parenting women in need and to learn how we can help. Take the pledge today!	"In some areas of our cities, there is still a lively sense of neighborhood. . . . Where people experience a closeness marked by gratitude, solidarity and reciprocity." (Pope Francis, Fratelli Tutti, no. 152) Seek out volunteer opportunities in your neighborhood this week.	On her feast day, pray to Our Lady of Guadalupe, that she may "help us never to see others as burdens," especially migrants to our country and communities.

2nd Sunday of Advent

1. The second purple candle on the Advent wreath is lit as a symbol of Faith in God. This candle is referred to as the "Bethlehem Candle" to remind us of the journey of the Holy Family.
2. Most of us know the story of the Nativity so well, and it never gets old. The Mother of God, Mary, and Saint Joseph, her husband, traveled to Bethlehem, as commanded by God. That journey was certainly not easy, but it was their utmost Faith in the Lord, which sustained their every step, humbly obeying and trusting His will for our salvation. It was almost time for Mary to give birth to Baby Jesus, but they still could not find a place to stay, until they ended up in a Cave. A few Catholic Saints who were favored by God with visions of the real Birth of Jesus said that He was actually born in a Cave, and not in a small barn, which a Nativity set always depicts as the place. It was true though that Jesus lay softly asleep on a manger with animals gathered around as the shepherds came to witness the Good News made known to them by the Angel. It filled them with hope, praise and glory for the Lord, and shared it with others that they, too, may have Faith.

FEAST OF FAITH

Watching for Christ's Coming!!

In the season of Advent, we look to the coming of Christ at the end of time, and we prepare ourselves to celebrate his first coming among us at Christmas. Remembrance of the past is combined with preparation for the future. Memory meets action.

In a certain sense, the Mass is an Advent prayer. At the Last Supper, Jesus did not tell his disciples, "Never forget what I did for you." Instead, he said, "Do this in remembrance of me." He calls us to remember by doing, to combine memory with action. In the celebration of the Eucharist, remembering and doing become one. Jesus is as present in our midst as he was in that upper room, breaking the bread and sharing the cup; but it is a new kind of presence, seen only with the eyes of faith. In the heavenly liturgy, there will be no need of sacraments, for there, "celebration is wholly communion and feast" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1136). Here, things are different. We have only glimpses and flashes of the beauty that is yet to be. And yet, in the liturgy, we truly participate in the heavenly liturgy.

The Mass is our foretaste of the joys of heaven.

FROM OUR PASTOR'S DESK

Immaculate Conception: Tuesday, December 8, we celebrate the Holy Day of Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The Immaculate Conception is the conception of Mary in the womb of her mother without any stain of sin. Church doctrine states that, from the first moment of her existence, Mary was preserved by God from the Original Sin and filled with sanctifying grace that would normally come with baptism after birth. Catholics believe Mary was free from any personal or hereditary sin.

But why such a focus on Mary? We must remember that any teaching about Mary must eventually point to Christ. The teaching on the Immaculate Conception points to the grace of God which preserved Mary from sin at her conception in order that she will bear the divine Son of God in her at the Annunciation.

At the Annunciation, Mary made her choice for God's plan to be fulfilled in her. We have been cleansed of sin at our baptism. It is for us now to remain in God's grace by choosing to do God's will always, just as Mary chose to do God's will. On this feast of the Immaculate Conception, let us also ask for Mary's intercession for the grace to do God's will always.

We have 2 Masses on this Holy Day; 8:30 am and 7:00 pm. Let us pray that prayer found on the Miraculous Medal. The prayer goes like this: O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to you.

Second Sunday of Advent: Today's Scripture readings give us all the messages of Advent. Our God is coming! Get ready! Rejoice!

We hear our God speak words of comfort to us in today's first reading. Like a shepherd, he feeds us and gathers us into his arms. While our God comes among us with power and majesty, he also comes with great tenderness and compassion.

Mark reminds us that God has come to live among us in Jesus. And Jesus will come again in glory to bring us to the banquet which God has prepared for those who love him.

As we wait eagerly for the coming of Jesus and the completion of the kingdom, we are invited to join John the Baptist in preparing the way of the Lord. We are to prepare our own hearts and our world for the return of Jesus.

John reminds us that preparing is repentance, making the road to our heart level and cleared of the stones of selfishness and sin.

That is our daily task as we wait. The eagerness of our longing for Jesus' return ought to manifest itself in our loving concern to the needs of one another. How we live and love each day announces the good news of God's continuing love for his people. The comfort we offer to each other reflect the comfort that God has offered to us.

St. Paul reminds us that our concern is to be ready every day for the coming of the Lord. Our consciousness of God's love for us allows us to wait joyfully, expectantly, ready and eager to use each day well. We have nothing to fear. Our God will come when he chooses to come. Right now, we can be thankful for the patience of our God. He is giving us time to prepare well for his coming.

As we continue to wait eagerly in prayer during this Advent season, let us use this time well to prepare our hearts and our world for the coming of Jesus among us once again. Rejoice, my brothers and sisters! Our God is coming! Let's continue to get ready!

Have a prayer-filled Advent season!
