ADVENT RECONCILIATION

In addition to our Wednesdays & Saturdays reconciliation, we will also be having reconciliation every Friday from 6:00pm – 7:00pm during Advent (3 Fridays) with the Holy Hour of Adoration.

The Advent season is a time of preparation, it directs our hearts and minds to Christ's second coming at the end of time and also to the anniversary of the Lord's birth on Christmas. The final days of Advent, from December 17 to December 24, focus particularly on our preparation for the celebrations of the Nativity of our Lord (Christmas).

Advent devotions including the Advent wreath, reminds us of the meaning of the season. The Advent calendar below can help you fully enter in to the season with daily activity and prayer suggestions to prepare you spiritually for the birth of Jesus Christ.

ADVENT CALENDAR 2020

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
13	14	15	16	17	18	19
The Third Sunday of Advent Today is Gaudete Sunday when we shift our reflection from "the Lord is coming" to "the Lord is near." Rejoice as you light the pink candle on your Advent wreath.	Memorial of St. John of the Cross, Priest and Doctor of the Church There are 10 days left in Advent. In honor of a saint known for his deep spirituality and compassion, reflect honestly on your own spiritual journey so far this season.	"As couples or friends, we find that our hearts expand as we step out of ourselves and embrace others." (Pope Francis, Fratelli Tutti, no. 89) How can you embrace others today?	Las Posadas, a reenactment of Mary and Joseph seeking shelter before the birth of Jesus, traditionally begins today. Pray for migrants seeking shelter around the world.	Today marks the beginning of the "O Antiphons." This tradition, which comes from Evening Prayer, has been around since at least the eighth century.	In today's Gospel we are reminded of St. Joseph's courage. Reflect on how God is calling you to demonstrate courage in serving him.	What's your favorite Christmas movie? Gather your friends or family (in-person or virtually) and watch a Christmas classic.

Third Sunday of Advent

The third Sunday of Advent is called "Gaudete" Sunday (coming from the first word of the Latin Entrance Antiphon for this day, meaning "Rejoice") and the liturgical color may be rose instead of purple and we also light the rose candle of our Advent wreath.

"Rejoice: the Lord is nigh." As Christmas draws near, the Church emphasizes the joy which should be in our hearts over all that the birth of our Savior means for us. The great joy of Christians is to see the day drawing nigh when the Lord will come again in His glory to lead them into His kingdom.

"Prepare the way of the Lord: Make straight in the wilderness His paths; Every valley shall be exalted; Every mountain and hill shall be made low; And the crooked shall be made straight; And the rough ways plain" (Is. 40:3, 4). Then shall you see the salvation of God!

A Prayer for the Third Week of Advent

Lord God, may we, your people, who look forward to the birthday of Christ experience the joy of salvation and celebrate that feast with love and thanksgiving. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, on God forever and ever. Amen.

FROM OUR PASTOR'S DESK

Friends, time is flying faster like never before. Well, we are in the Third Sunday of Advent getting ready for Christmas. Next Sunday, after 11:30am Mass we will be decorating our Church for Christmas celebrations. Please consider sharing your time and talent in getting our church ready with Christmas decorations. Thank you for your availability.

WHO ME? I came across a group of children in school playing a game. I guess the name of the game is “Who took the cookie from the cookie pot?” Each child in the group is given a number except for one child who is the “cookie pot”. So, the “cookie pot” will say “who took the cookie from the cookie pot” followed by “Number 3 (or whatever number) took the cookie from the cookie pot!”

The child who is number 3 will say “Who me?” Cookie pot will reply “Yes, you!” Number 3 will say “Couldn’t be!” Cookie pot will say “Then who?” and then Number 3 will say “Number 5 (or whatever number) took the cookie from the cookie pot.” From there, the Cookie Pot and Number 5 will repeat the same question and reply. Then whoever fumbles in the dialogue or forgets his number becomes the next “Cookie Pot”. And when there is a new Cookie Pot, the children are assigned new numbers. Young children will find it exciting, but for adults, this is children’s game.

In the gospel, the conversation between the priests and the Levites, and John the Baptist was like a “children’s game”. - Are you the Christ? Who me? Yes, you! Couldn’t be! Then who? - Are you Elijah? Who me? Yes, you! Couldn’t be! Then who? - Are you the Prophet? Who me? Yes, you! Couldn’t be! Then who? The priests and the Levites are like the “Cookie Pot” who kept asking questions and getting dead end answers from John the Baptist.

In their frustration, they said to him: Who are you? We must take back an answer to those who sent us. What have you to say about yourself? John the Baptist stated clearly that he was not the Christ, not Elijah, not the Prophet, and then he said that he is “the voice that cries out in the wilderness: Make a straight way for the Lord.”

John the Baptist said that he was just a voice in the wilderness. But we know he was more than that. He came as a witness to speak for the Light, so that everyone might believe through him. He was not the Light, only a witness to speak for the Light.

As we prepare to celebrate the birth of Jesus the true Light, we too like John the Baptist, are to be witnesses to speak for the Light. And we can’t say “Who me? Couldn’t be!” because if not we, then who? Our preparation in Advent is to witness and speak for the Light of lights, whose birth we celebrate at Christmas.

It’s not just about putting up Christmas decorations and singing Christmas carols. There is more than just that.

For many people in the world today, Jesus is a dim and abstract figure. Even “Merry Christmas” is being replaced with “Happy Holidays” and “Season’s Greetings”.

In the words of John the Baptist “there stands among you, unknown to you”. Yes, Jesus needs witnesses to make Him known. The world may know about Christmas but may not know who Christ is.

So, who are to be the witnesses of Christ at Christmas? Who else but us. If not we, then who?

Like John the Baptist, we must bear witness and speak for the Light so that everyone might believe and come to embrace the Light.
