FROM OUR PASTOR'S DESK

Rejoice

Regardless of make or model your automobile needs a periodic check-up beyond its regular oil changes. A check-up is preventive maintenance. The examination tells you what part is wearing, what needs to be replaced. It also brings you good news: your tires are in good shape; so are your brakes.

The Church has us do the same thing for our spiritual maintenance. The time for this is called Lent. For the last three and a half weeks we have had the opportunity to look hard at ourselves. We may have seen that our patience is not working smoothly, and we take steps to improve it. We may have seen that our prayer life needs some adjustment, so we take steps to improve our timing.

Today is Laetare Sunday. Laetare Sunday is the time when we get to hear the good news from our church in our annual check-up. We hear some especially good news: the most popular verse in the entire bible: John 3: 16. "For God so loved the world that he gave his only son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life."

You and I are part of that "loved world". It is to you and me that those words are addressed.

Please note that those words do not say that God was so angry at the world, so furious with the world, so disappointed with the world. No, it says God so loved the world.

Those are the words that provide the reason for naming this Sunday "Laetare Sunday." Laetare means "rejoice," have joy at the good news.

Joy is natural in our lives as Christians. St. Francis de Sales said it well: "A sad saint is a sorry saint." Christian joy is based on what Jesus did for us. Surely, joy in us is necessary to attract others toward appreciating what is the source of our joy. "See the Christians; see how they have love for one another." Observed love is joyful.

I like the story of "spotted tail." Spotted Tail was a chief in the Sioux Nation. He resisted all attempts of Christian missionaries who came to his reservation. In fact, he would throw a bucket of water on any missionary who approached him -- mocking the baptism they preached. One day in the autumn of 1876, a Roman Catholic nun was visiting the home of the commanding officer of the Indian Agency. Both she and Spotted Tail were invited to a reception hosted by the officer's wife. Lemonade, not fire-water was probably served. The nun, who seems to have had a wonderful, whimsical streak, stood up and raised her glass toward spotted tail. The chief immediately responded by standing and raising his glass towards her. She began to dance joyfully. Glass raised, and laughing aloud, she approached the chief, who did the same. The two met in the center of the room laughing together and toasting each other. This moment of joy changed spotted tail's image of Christianity to the degree that he sent one of his daughters to the nun's convent-school in Kansas City.

Dour faces neither reflect the face of God nor draw people toward our church/RCIA. Think of all the "holy cards" and religious paintings [sacred art] that you have ever seen: how many of the faces are smiling? How many reflect the joy of receiving the gift in today's Gospel? The next time you receive a delightful gift -- try opening it with a dour face. We cannot. It should not happen with our Lord's gift of life -- here and hereafter.

When we "Live Jesus," when we "put on Christ" may we not forget to absorb and reflect his joyful smile.

ACTIVITIES YOUR FAMILY CAN DO TOGETHER

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT Jesus shows us God's love

WEEK OF MARCH 14

Read the Gospel for today (John 3:14-21).

REFLECTION:

Today's Gospel has one of the most famous lines in the Bible: "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life." It means that Jesus, the Son of God, came to show us how to live and how to get to heaven. It's the most important thing we can ever learn.

PRAYER:

Jesus, we know that you became one of us to teach us how to live a good life, to show us the importance of loving and helping others, and to ultimately give your life for us. As we continue our Lenten journey, help us to better understand your sacrifice and what it means for us. Amen.

ACTIVITY:

Jesus used the images of light and darkness to describe the difference between making good choices and making bad ones. When our bad choices lead to sin, in a way we have less light in our lives, and that isn't what God wants for us.

Now, when families are spending more time together at home, is a good time to pay more attention to the little moments of "light" we can offer around the house — things like putting toys away, offering to help with household chores and making an extra effort not to bicker with siblings. These are the kinds of things that, bit by bit, can make a home happier and more loving.

Easy-to-do family activities for Lent from "UNBOUND"

All Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence. Catholics who are 14 years or older should abstain from meat entirely. Soups and gravies made from meat are permitted.

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fasting. Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59 are permitted one full meal and two lesser meals per day (which together should not equal one full meal) with NO eating between meals.

FOR PEACE IN ANXIETY DURING THE CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC

Loving God, we come to you full of anxiety about what may happen in the coming days and weeks. Shower us with the peace Jesus promised to his disciples, and make us into steady pillars for those around us. In this time of uncertainty and epidemic, wake us up to the reminder that we are not alone.

Even as we are asked to keep our distance from others, help us to find ways to reach out to those who need our support. We pray especially for those whose incomes and livelihoods are threatened. For the children who will miss meals due to school closures. For those already isolated, lonely and scared. Loving God, give them your peace, and through our hands ensure they have what they need.

Sustain, strengthen and protect all caregivers. Bless them as they offer compassionate care and show selfless courage in the face of risk.

Remind us, each time we wash our hands, that in our baptism you call us to let go of our fears and live in joy, peace, and hope.

Amen.
