FROM OUR PASTOR'S DESK

WHOEVER LOVES HIS LIFE LOSES IT

We have nothing to fear. Jesus tells us: "My Father will honor whoever serves me." That is Jesus' promise to us.

Today, I would like to begin with a story about a great Indian Christian named Sundar. Sundar had been a member of the Sikh religion, but converted to Christianity, Sundar lived in the Himalayan Mountains. The story is true. During the cold of winter, Sundar was travelling by foot with a Buddhist monk. Their destination was a monastery high in the mountains. Suddenly, the weather changed. The temperature dropped. The journey became dangerous. Night was coming on; the weather was turning even worse. There was a very good chance that Sundar and the monk would freeze to death.

They crossed over a narrow path above a steep cliff when they heard someone calling out for help. Underneath them, another traveler had fallen and lay deep down in a ravine, a large crack in the earth. The monk warned Sundar, "Do not stop, God has brought this man to his fate. He must work it out himself. That is the tradition. We must hurry on ourselves before we die." Sundar responded, "It is the tradition in my religion that God has brought me here to help my brother. I cannot abandon him."

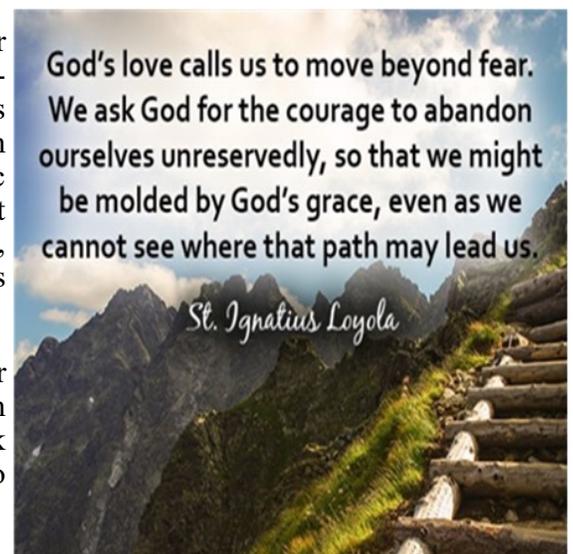

So, Sundar went down into the large crack in the earth. Meanwhile, the monk hurried on alone. When Sundar came upon the injured man he found that the man had broken his leg. He made rudimentary sling and hauled the man onto his back. Sundar struggled, but was able to carry the man up to the path. He felt his body overheating, but he continued to carry the man. They were warmed by each other's body. Perspiring profusely, almost fainting, Sundar finally caught sight of the monastery. Then a few hundred yards away from the monastery, Sundar stumbled and fell.

Sundar had fallen over the body of the dead monk who had left him. The monk had frozen to death within sight of the monastery. As he brushed the snow away from the monk's body, Sundar remembered the words of today's Gospel: "Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will preserve it for eternal life."

What a poor world it would be if everyone put their own personal safety, security and selfish advancement first. It is always because people have been prepared to die to self-interest that the most precious things humanity possesses have been born.

Each kind act of kindness, toward a loved one or a stranger is a step in the right direction. A husband meets his greatest challenge to die to self as he devotedly cares for his terminally ill wife unto the end, never counting the cost in dollars or days. So, it is a wife attending to her paraplegic husband in a heroic sacrifice of her life. So, it is a parent unconditionally loving his child with Down Syndrome, open to the Godly beauty and goodness that child has brought into the world.

As we continue our Lenten journey, let us listen to our heart; it is there that God speaks to us. Let us strive each day to do with love all that our God asks of us. Let us ask Jesus, who has died and risen for us, to draw us closer to him and one another each day.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

We follow Jesus

WEEK OF MARCH 21

Read the Gospel for today (John 12:20-33).

REFLECTION:

Here Jesus talks about his own suffering and death, which he knows is coming soon. He doesn't want to die, but he's willing to do it out of love for us. He knows that because of his death, we can have eternal life.

PRAYER:

Jesus, we don't fully understand why you had to suffer and die, but we believe in you and in your love for us. Just as you died for us, help us to live for you and follow your example of love and service. We ask this in your holy name. Amen.

ACTIVITY:

To help his friends understand why he needed to die on the Cross, Jesus used the image of a seed being planted in the ground. He said that it is only when a seed "dies" in this way that a new plant can grow.

Together as a family, plant some seeds in your yard. Let different family members take turns watering and caring for them. Get some pictures of the planting activity and the plants as they grow. Talk together about what it's like to bring about new life in this way.

Easy-to-do family activities for Lent from "UNBOUND"

All Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence. Catholics who are 14 years or older should abstain from meat entirely. Soups and gravies made from meat are permitted.

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fasting. Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59 are permitted one full meal and two lesser meals per day (which together should not equal one full meal) with NO eating between meals.

FOR PEACE IN ANXIETY

DURING THE CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC

Loving God, we come to you full of anxiety about what may happen in the coming days and weeks. Shower us with the peace Jesus promised to his disciples, and make us into steady pillars for those around us. In this time of uncertainty and epidemic, wake us up to the reminder that we are not alone.

Even as we are asked to keep our distance from others, help us to find ways to reach out to those who need our support. We pray especially for those whose incomes and livelihoods are threatened. For the children who will miss meals due to school closures. For those already isolated, lonely and scared. Loving God, give them your peace, and through our hands ensure they have what they need.

Sustain, strengthen and protect all caregivers. Bless them as they offer compassionate care and show selfless courage in the face of risk.

Remind us, each time we wash our hands, that in our baptism you call us to let go of our fears and live in joy, peace, and hope.
