like to request a visit, please call the church office to schedule appointments.

TO LIVE WITH JESUS IS TO REALLY LIVE:

As we begin the month of May we have set of celebrations. First of all, on 1st May, St. Joseph is venerated as an ideal worker, teaching us that work does not constitute the punishment imposed on human being instead, work indicates that human being is the cooperator with God. Month of May is dedicated for the devotion to Mother Mary; therefore, the May Crowning. And then our second-grade children receive the Lord for the first time in the Holy Eucharist. We are very happy for them and we congratulate them. Congratulations to their parents and their Catechism teachers too. May they always experience the grace and the overflowing blessings from the Lord.

Today's Gospel is taken from our Lord's discourse at the Last Supper. He is saying farewell to his disciples. Although they may not know it, Jesus knows that by the next day he will be dead. His talk at the Last Supper reveals his deepest and most precious thoughts. As his disciples we need to hang on to his every word. He is speaking his final words of love. After he has gone, he wants us to bear fruit, abundant fruit and fruit that will last.

Of ourselves we can do nothing. There is no pint in trying. Our efforts may well be full of 'sound and fury but signifying nothing'. There is only one way to have successful life: "Make your home in me, as I make mine in you". He wants you to live in him as you live in your own home. The relationship has all intimacy and relaxed atmosphere of a home.

This is the religion he has come to found. It is not an organization of rituals and set of prayers, of dress and diet. It is a life with him in the close and warm intimacy of a loving family.

"Make your home in me" Love with me and we will share life together. We will share joys and sorrows, tragedies and triumphs. In everything we will be together. In everything we will be one. This is the desire of heart. While walking this earth he had been one with his disciples. Now when he is raised, he wants to be one in love with each of us. This will be by faith. The darkness of faith purifies us in our search for him. But he who searches also finds and there is brightness and a vision to be found in the search of faith.

How do I know if I am living on Christ? "Whoever keeps his commandments lives in God and God in him." We then experience his presence in us. "Whoever keeps my commandments is the one who loves me. I too shall love him and show myself clearly to him". (John 14:21). "The one who lives in love, lives in God and God in him." (1 John 4:16).

Do you want an intimate and personal relationship with Jesus in faith? Or are you satisfied with a religion of prayers and rituals to a God who is somewhere beyond while you live your own life here below? To meet Jesus and make your home in him put aside time every day to read and pray the Word of God and to listen to Jesus speaking to you and respond by speaking to him.

He does not come down from Heaven each day to stay in the gold chalice. He comes down to find another Heaven He cherishes infinitely more than the first, the Heaven of our souls, made in His image, living temples of the Most Blessed Trinity!

Saint Therese of Lisieux

FOR PEACE IN ANXIETY DURING THE CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC

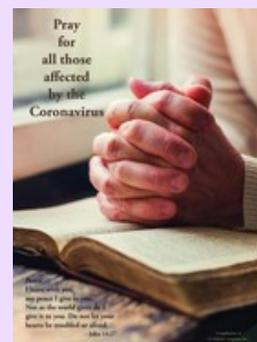

Loving God, we come to you full of anxiety about what may happen in the coming days and weeks. Shower us with the peace Jesus promised to his disciples, and make us into steady pillars for those around us. In this time of uncertainty and epidemic, wake us up to the reminder that we are not alone.

Even as we are asked to keep our distance from others, help us to find ways to reach out to those who need our support. We pray especially for those whose incomes and livelihoods are threatened. For the children who will miss meals due to school closures. For those already isolated, lonely and scared. Loving God, give them your peace, and through our hands ensure they have what they need.

Sustain, strengthen and protect all caregivers. Bless them as they offer compassionate care and show selfless courage in the face of risk.

Remind us, each time we wash our hands, that in our baptism you call us to let go of our fears and live in joy, peace, and hope.

Amen.
