FROM OUR PASTOR'S DESK

CAN YOU LOVE AS JESUS LOVES?

Following Mother Teresa's address to a group of wealthy suburban men and women, a member in the audience stood and asked, "Mother, you have done so much to make the world a better place. What can we do?" Mother Teresa smiled and said simply, "Love your children." The questioner looked perplexed and seemed about to speak again. Mother Teresa continued: "There are other things you can do, but this is the best. Love your children as much as you can. Love your children so that they know you love them. Show them that you love them. That is the best."

Jesus not only told his disciples what to do but also gave them a standard by which to measure their love. He said: "Love one another as I have loved you." This love knows no limits. This love symbolizes total self-giving.

Today we also celebrate Mother's Day and in so many ways we see how our mothers' love is like a total sacrifice. In their love for us, we see how God has loved for the ways it reflects the new life, nurturing those on tension of providing both us. We commend mothering image of God by bringing forth her path, and living with the freedom and a safety net.

We pray for those who gave child, for those who are both expected and surprising, es with little ones every day stains, those who are foster spiritual moms, those who disappointment, heartache, and children.

For those who lost a child this experienced loss through miscarriage, failed adoptions, or running away, those who walk the hard path of infertility, fraught with pokes, prods, tears, and disappointment, those who lived through testing of motherhood, those who are single and long to be married and mothering your own children, those who step-parent, those who envisioned lavishing love on grandchildren -yet that dream is not to be.

For those who lost their mothers this year, those who will have emptier nests in the upcoming year, those who placed children up for adoption those who experienced abuse at the hands of your own mother, and for those who still feel the pain of years past of aborting children, this Mother's Day, we walk with you. We remember you. We pray for you.

To all mothers, may you have a happy Mother's Day. May God always bless you for the love and kindness you have shown us. To all mothers who have passed, may God grant them eternal rest and may the great Mother of God, Mary most holy, welcome them into her company in heaven.

As we celebrate Mother's Day, please take a moment to pray for your mother, living or deceased. Through the intercession of the Blessed Mother may the Lord help our families to be truly holy families!

we see how God has loved for the ways it reflects the new life, nurturing those on tension of providing both
