FROM OUR PASTOR'S DESK

DO YOU SEE THE STAR?

Today, the Church celebrates the feast of the Epiphany. Epiphany means a revelation or a manifestation. It means that the newborn Savior was revealed to the whole world through the wise men. But it was not as simple as it sounds. The wise men saw the star and they knew it was a special star – it was the star of the infant king of the Jews.

So where is this infant King of the Jews? Well, just follow the star. The solution is as simple as that. But not really that easy! Because obviously at times, they couldn't see the star and that is why they ended up in Jerusalem because they supposed that the infant King would be born in a big city. It was the Word of God that showed them the way to Bethlehem and entering in 'they fell down and worshipped him'.

The Magi from the East, confidently following the Star of Bethlehem, seek to render homage to the newborn Infant lying in a manger. They find no pleasure in the beauty of the city of Jerusalem, or in the magnificence of Herod's court. Their hearts seek the little cave at Bethlehem and its little Child. They rigorously forsake every other pleasure so that they may more strongly find pleasure in God's presence in the Christ Child.

Let us come close to our Savior in the divine crib and listen to the many inspirations and affections that awaken us to God's goodness. It may be very difficult at times to trust in God. We may even feel no confidence in God. Yet in these times of difficulties, we still have the power to make a simple act of confidence in God. We can say, "While I feel no confidence in You, I know that you are my God, and that I am all yours."

THANK YOU!!!

Joanne Hughes, one of the parishioners of Holy Spirit said: "The Vigil Project Advent Mission Concert was the best event I've ever seen. From Mass to Soup for the Soul, to that gorgeous Concert with Adoration, and then the Cookies and Cocoa plus Wine and Cheese! This was amazing and all the Glory goes to God! Bring them back for Lent!!!"

Thank you to all the amazing ministries and people who made the entire evening possible and sincerely welcomed The True Presence Night with The Vigil Project Musicians: Greg Boudreaux, Andrea Thomas, John Finch, Shawn Williams, Wesley Mannino, and Molly Finch!

Thank you, Allison and Dwyane for making this possible
