FROM OUR PASTOR'S DESK

WHY DO WE CELEBRATE A FEAST OF GOD'S MERCY?

The Apostles were huddled behind locked doors "for fear of the Jews". Jesus came through the locked door and stood before them. We might expect Jesus -- who was betrayed, denied, and -- to lambast the men he had called "friends". But Jesus gave them his peace.

This reminds us of Jesus' prayer to his father on the cross, "Father, forgive them..." The Jewish and Roman authorities that condemned him to death...the throngs that had been amazed at his miracles...wonder-filled at his teaching-with-authority...sated with bread and fish in their empty stomachs ...people who had strewn palms in his path when he entered Jerusalem -- and screamed "crucify him".

It is not by chance that the worldwide Catholic Church recognizes Jesus' magnificent forgiveness in today's remembrance called Divine Mercy Sunday. Pope John-Paul II initiated it in 2000 at the urging of Sr. Faustina Kowalski. And we celebrate the extravagant abundance of compassion of Jesus on this day.

Jesus gave us the two great commandments. Surely contained within love is forgiveness, mercy. Today's celebration of divine mercy highlights a most important aspect of love that is often overlooked, or not even recognized as being, perhaps, the most important and most difficult aspect of love: forgiveness. Disagreements inevitably do happen. There is a solution.

We, the Church, must recognize that forgiveness is to love what grease is to gears. In the long run, if there is not forgiveness the relationship of love grinds to a screeching halt. The apostles' experience of forgiveness in today's Gospel keeps us rooted in Jesus who forgave his apostles without condition and forgives us the same way. With his loving forgiveness and its effect on us, he sends forth his disciples and us to preach and to practice what we preach.

O good Jesus, may we be open to the peace that you offer us. May we be rooted in faith, joyful in hope and fervent in holy love, as we await your future coming!
