Unbound Ministry: Coming July 16 & 17

Unbound partners with families living in poverty, empowering them to become self-sufficient and fulfill their desired potential. When you sponsor a child, young adult or elder through Unbound, you invest in personalized benefits that support goals chosen by the sponsored individual and their family. And with 92.1% of Unbound's expenses going toward program support, you can rest assured your contributions are working hard to meet the needs of your sponsored friend.

Fr. Donnelly will be visiting us for the Masses of July 16th and 17th for a mission appeal. This link

<https://www.unbound.org/MyOutreach/FatherDonnelly>

Will allow you to donate online or you may donate in person during those Masses.

We thank you for your generosity!

Dear loving Fr. Amar, Brothers and Sisters of Holy Spirit Community...

Giving thanks and being appreciative of the blessings in our lives is a good frame of mind and a good thing to do.

With that thought in mind, I sincerely express my thanks to Fr. Amar, various ministries, and whole community of Holy Spirit. Please accept your well-deserved thanks and appreciation from me the humble servant of the Lord. I give glory to God for your presence and for your kind support for me.

I also thank you on behalf of our entire Fransalian family, we want you to know how much we appreciate your continued prayers and support. You make our lives in your parish easy through your kindness.

The Mass of Thanksgiving in celebration of my 25 years of priesthood and appointment as the provincial of the USA Vice-Province of Missionaries of Saint Francis de Sales and the reception after the Mass was a great event and beyond explanation. It was so well organized that everyone gathered had best time of spiritual nourishment and delicious dinner. I am sure that Fr. Amar couldn't do it without your generous cooperation. Please accept my heartfelt appreciation and congratulations!

Let me close by thanking you for your continued prayers and concern. I am very grateful to you for your wonderful presence in my life for so many years.

I am confused that how can I give you back for what you have done to me. As you all know I can pay you back through my prayers and love.

May God bless you and your families always!

Yours lovingly, in Christ and Mary.

Fr. Anthony Bonela, MSFS

FROM OUR PASTOR'S DESK

"WHAT MUST I DO TO INHERIT ETERNAL LIFE?"

Jesus answered this question by narrating the parable of the 'Good Samaritan'. Jesus is telling us how we are to live as an image of God - loving God with our whole being and loving our neighbor as we love ourselves.

The parable is meant to shock us into realizing the extent to which we are to love. Because we all share the dignity of image of God, we are to love as God loves. There is to be no limit to our love. "Neighbor" is a way of acting, and not a person located outside of us. "Neighbor," then, is the way I treat anyone I meet - whether I know them or not, whether I like them or not, whether I consider them friend or foe.

Jesus' point is made when the lawyer identifies the Samaritan as the "neighbor" in the parable – "The one who treated the injured stranger with compassion." Like the lawyer in the Gospel, all of us ask: "What must I do to inherit everlasting life?" Jesus tells us: "Go and do the same."

The Gospel describes vividly that Christian charity consists in concrete action. Jesus says: 'What you have done for the least of my brothers and sisters you have done it for me'. His "least" ones are always there and everywhere: the sick, the aged, the poor, and the needy. The question is whether we are prepared to open our eyes and see their needs and offer them a helping hand. In short Jesus wants us:

- To be helpful to anybody in trouble whether he is our friend or foe, known or unknown, for God lets his sun, shine on the good and the bad.
- To give our help a practical expression: it must go beyond sentiments and compassion, it must be more than lip-service.

Our love must find expression in helpful deeds. Then only can we call ourselves 'Good Samaritans'.

Next week, we welcome Rev. William Donnelly who is going to celebrate Masses and tell us about the work of UNBOUND, a lay Catholic sponsorship ministry that helps children and elderly in 18 developing countries.

UNBOUND partners with families living in poverty, empowering them to become self-sufficient and fulfill their desired potential. When you sponsor a child, young adult or elder through UNBOUND, you invest in personalized benefits that support goals chosen by the sponsored individual and their family.

God's love in you calls you to love others. Saint Francis de Sales says: "To love our neighbor in charity is to love God in human". May the Holy Spirit help us to be Good Samaritans!
