There are a lot of opinions on Halloween and its history, meaning, and how Catholics should celebrate it. To clarify some of the confusion, we are providing these resources from trusted Catholic websites that speak about Catholics and Halloween:

FROM OUR PASTOR'S DESK

TODAY IS WORLD MISSION SUNDAY! We celebrate this day by remembering our Baptismal call to bring the Gospel to all!

As our Holy Father has reminded us, we have a baptismal responsibility to participate in the worldwide missionary task of the Church. Half the people of the world have yet to hear of Jesus' message of salvation. We have not been called to pack up and preach the Word in foreign lands. But we can participate in the missionary task.

We can pray daily for our brothers and sisters who have chosen to minister the Word around the world. Their task is often difficult; we can pray that they do not lose heart as they minister. We can also offer them financial assistance in their task. Many of the people they serve earn less than a dollar a day. These are our brothers and sisters in need - and we can help them.

While many would suffer for their Christian belief in the days and centuries to come, communicating the news of redemption through the Son of God is absolutely necessary. Mission activity is an elemental part of the Church since we are all called to share the love and forgiveness of Christ with every person possible. And each of us needs to be willing to do all we can to bring the word of Jesus Crucified and Risen to others. We do this not only through prayer, but also through our example, witness, and support for Missions.

For almost a century, the Catholic Church has taken up a collection on World Mission Sunday to assist the work of the missions and missionaries in countries around the globe. While the Church shares the joyful message of God's mercy, it also assists our neighbors who struggle with material needs. Priests, religious Sisters and Brothers, and laypeople continue to reach out to men, women, and children who do not know Christ or do not yet entrust themselves to His mercy. We must live our faith by sharing our faith. Today – and every day – we need to commit ourselves to follow in the footsteps of our Lord by welcoming others to His gracious and glorious embrace.

On this World Mission Sunday, let us witness to our faith through our prayers and financial help to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. Our generosity on this Sunday, combined with what is offered in churches and chapels around the globe, join us to the efforts of missionaries who proclaim the Gospel and serve the poor.

Quilts for Vets Ministry

Honoring our Veterans—One Quilt at a Time

Created to honor Veterans for their selfless service, Quilts for Vets held their first patriotic quilt give-away in November 2017. Since then, 92 veterans have been recognized and honored with quilts.

Each quilt is unique. Handmade by a small dedicated group of parishioners in appreciation for all the sacrifices our vets and active duty service men and women make while serving. Every stitch is our “thank you” to those who keep us safe and protect the freedoms we enjoy today.

We would like to acknowledge and thank the following:

- Fr. Amar for his support and blessings
- Guest speakers for sharing their thoughts and insights in military service
- Our choir
- Our rosary makers
- Our photographer
- Our veterans, current service men and women and their families

If you have an interest in joining this Ministry, please contact Diane St. Laurent at 904-220-9199 or via e-mail at: Stlaurent819@hotmail.com.
