FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

ARE WE THE 'REDEEMED?'

"Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world."* Jn 1:29.

We say these words at every Mass we celebrate. What do we mean? What did John mean by this title?

John was probably referring to the Paschal Lamb that was slaughtered for the Passover every year. (Ex. 12:11-13) We read in the Exodus (Ex. 29:38-34) that the ritual sacrifice of a lamb took place in Israel every night and every morning. It was meant to expiate the sins of the people. Gospels depict Jesus as the One who expiates the sins of all, as the only One who can deliver humanity from sin.

The lamb is also the symbol of a conqueror in the Old Testament, who destroys evil. Again, the lamb is a symbol of meekness, of a 'suffering servant,' who goes obediently and silently to his death. In Jesus we find the fulfilment of all these symbols; He fulfils all these roles.

As Christians we all share in the mission of Christ. We all belong to Christ the Lamb of God. We are freed from sin by the Lamb. Our mission is not so much to be saved from the world, but to save it. We should be revealers of God's love in our everyday life.

We are at the beginning of Ordinary Time. The great liturgical seasons of Advent-Christmas and Lent-Easter are more expansive celebrations of particular aspects of the one paschal mystery which we celebrate every Lord's Day. These special seasons focus our attention upon critical dimensions of one mystery.

Ordinary Time, the celebration of Sunday, is the identifying mark of the Christian community which comes together, remembering that on this first day of the week the Lord of Life was raised up and creation came at last to completion. Sunday as a day of play and worship is a sacrament of redeemed time. How we live Sunday proclaims to the world what we believe about redeemed time now and forever.
