FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

BEING LIGHT AND SALT

Jesus tells us that He wants us to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world.

The salt that we are called to be means that we are to give a taste of God's presence in our conversations with others. Too much salt would turn people off as it would become overdosed with religion, and we are seen to be overly zealous.

But often in our conversations, God is missing, and it becomes like tasteless food. And it is here that Jesus is prompting us to be that "pinch of salt" that would leave in others a taste of God. Especially when our conversations digress into complaining and gossiping. That is when we must be the salt that would purify and preserve the decency of the topics of our conversation.

If we, as the salt of the earth, give others a taste of God, then as the light of the world, we are called to be light signs that show others the way to God and the ways of God. Light guides. It warms up; it removes fear. It shows the path.

Light becomes useful when it makes us see things other than itself: the world around us. As Christians we should make things visible. We should light up possibilities, and we should brighten our world.

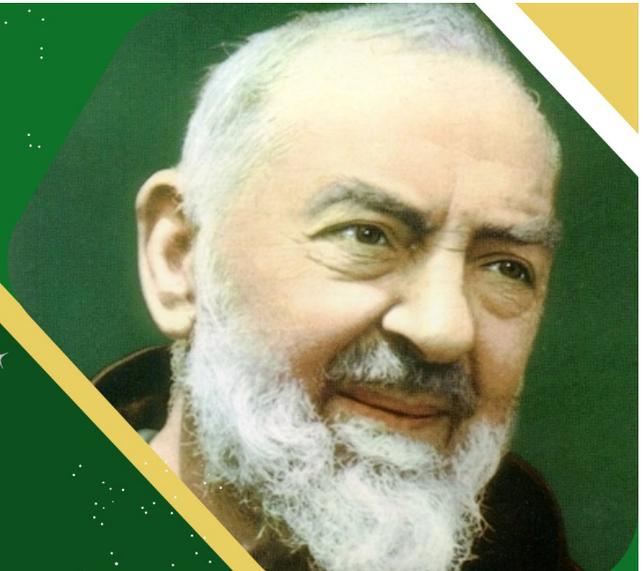

The testimony of kindness, mercy, and welcome that emanates from our lives illumines the way for others, some we know and some we will never know. But we find happiness by helping others to be happy. In doing that, we also will find the purpose and meaning in life. We find God in our lives, and we can help others to do so.

We are Christians. A Christian is a person in whose life Christ lives again. Just as salt gives taste and light gives sight, let us give others a taste of God's presence and to help them see the mysterious ways of God.

"Always remain close to the Catholic Church, because it alone can give you true peace, since it alone possesses Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, the true Prince of Peace."
