Holy Spirit Catholic Church

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

On this 6th Sunday of Easter, we turn our attention to the Gospel of John 14:15-21, where Jesus promises us the gift of the Holy Spirit. And as we prepare to celebrate Mother's Day, I am reminded of the countless ways that mothers demonstrate the fruits of the Spirit in their everyday lives.

Jesus tells us that if we love him and keep his commandments, we will be blessed with the presence of the Holy Spirit in our lives. Similarly, mothers who strive to raise their children in the ways of the Lord are planting seeds of faith that will continue to bear fruit for generations to come.

Jesus goes on to say that he will not leave us as orphans, but will come to us through the Holy Spirit. In a similar way, mothers are always there for their children – providing comfort, guidance, and unconditional love even in the toughest of times.

The gift of the Holy Spirit is a constant reminder that we are never alone – that God is always with us. And as we reflect on the role of mothers in our lives, we recognize that their presence is a tangible sign of God's love, providence, and care.

For some of us, our mothers are still with us, and we are blessed to have them in our lives. Let us take this opportunity to thank them for all that they have done for us, and to tell them how much we love them. For some, mothers have passed away, and this day can be a difficult reminder of their absence. Let us remember them in our prayers and give thanks for the love that they shared with us during their time on earth.

As we celebrate Mother's Day, let us also remember the many women in our lives who have served as mother figures to us. Perhaps it is a grandmother, an aunt, a sister, or a friend who has shown us the love of a mother. Let us thank them for their love and their care and let us also remember those who may not have had a mother figure in their lives.

May the example of mothers everywhere inspire us to live lives filled with the fruits of the Spirit – love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. And may the Holy Spirit continue to guide and bless us all in our journey of faith.

Blessings to all the mothers on this special day and always!

Happy
Mother's Day

Greetings to all our mothers in our Holy Spirit community. With the intercession of Mother Mary, may you and your family always be blessed!
