ADORATION

Daily Adoration

"I worry that some of you still have not really met Jesus. One to one. You and Him alone. Jesus wants me to tell you again, how much is the love He has for each of you - beyond all that you can imagine ... We may spend time in the chapel- but have you seen with the eyes of your soul how He looks at you with love? Do you really know the living Jesus - not from books, but from being with Him in your heart? Have you heard the loving words He speaks to you?"

-St. Mother Teresa

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Friends,

The dictionary defines transfiguration as to “transform into something more beautiful or exalted”. This is how St. Matthew explains it in today’s Gospel. Jesus goes up to the mountain top with his beloved disciples and there he is transformed or transfigured before them. “His face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light”. Jesus is also joined by Moses and Elijah as a sign that he is the fulfillment of the God’s promise of the Old Covenant. Both at the transfiguration and Baptism of the Lord, we hear God speaking from the heaven, “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased”. But he goes on to say, “Listen to him”. Remember that this command is not only for the disciples but also for each of us.

According to St. Francis de Sales, transfiguration of Jesus is seen as a “glimpse of heaven”. He says, “our eyes, our minds and our hearts need to be transfigured or transformed in ways that enable us to catch this, “glimpse of heaven”, within us and around us. We need to see more clearly the glory of a God who always loves, redeems, heals, forgives, challenges, pursues, strengthens, and inspires us. Let us earnestly pray for the grace to listen to Him and through our exemplary Catholic Christian living to make that “glimpse of heaven” more clearly visible and available to the eyes and in the lives of others.

Salesian Moment – A moment with St. Francis de Sales

Think about heaven: Millions and millions of angels, Cherubim, Seraphim; the assembly of apostles, Martyrs, Confessors, Virgins, Holy Men and Women. The multitude cannot be counted, and they are a happy gathering. The least of them is more beautiful than the whole world. What will it be to see them all?

Holy Spirit Catholic School

Our parish school will begin its new academic year on August 10th, 2023. We welcome wholeheartedly all the students and the teachers and pray that it will be another year of successful learning and growing in a faithful environment. On behalf of our parish community, I want to wish all the staff and students a wonderful school year. May the Spirit of God continue to guide each one of you!

“At His Transfiguration Christ showed His disciples, the splendor of His beauty, to which He will shape and color those who are His: ‘He will reform our lowliness configured to the body of his glory.’”

St. Thomas Aquinas
