ADORATION

Daily Adoration

"I worry that some of you still have not really met Jesus. One to one. You and Him alone. Jesus wants me to tell you again, how much is the love He has for each of you - beyond all that you can imagine ... We may spend time in the chapel- but have you seen with the eyes of your soul how He looks at you with love? Do you really know the living Jesus - not from books, but from being with Him in your heart? Have you heard the loving words He speaks to you?"

-St. Mother Teresa

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross and follow me."

By now we are all-too-familiar with this invitation – and its accompanying challenge – to follow in the footsteps of Jesus and what it requires on our part.

Have we not read or heard this admonition very often ... s-l-o-w-l-y? C-a-r-e-f-u-l-l-y? Jesus does not challenge us to carry his cross. No, Jesus calls each of us to carry our own personal one-of-a-kind cross. To understand what it means to carry our crosses, we must first consider what we mean if we are considering the cross of Christ.

The "cross of Jesus Christ" was not just the cross that Jesus carried on the last day of his public ministry and the cross on which Jesus gave his life, but the cross of Jesus Christ was his entire life. The cross that Jesus carried each day was his willingness to be faithful to whom the Father had called him to be and to embrace everything – success, setback, and everything else in between – that came with his state, stage, and mission in life.

In particular, the cross that Jesus carried was his fidelity to embracing life – and giving his life – regardless of the difficulties and challenges that frequently accompanied his efforts at proclaiming the reign of God. We are also followers of Jesus. By virtue of God's creative, redeeming, and inspiring love – a love publicly demonstrated in baptism – we must take up our crosses – In short, we must come to recognize our place in life and have the courage to take it.

This fact is especially true when it comes to the challenges that we do not or would not choose raising a difficult child, dealing with an unanticipated change of job or residence, receiving an unexpected diagnosis of a life-threatening disease or illness, working with a troublesome colleague or neighbor, fighting depression, or losing a wife, husband or other loved one.

St. Francis wrote:

"You are quite willing to have a cross, but you want to choose what sort it is to be...I want your cross and mine to be no other than Jesus Christ's cross, both regarding its kind and the way in which it is laid upon us." (Stopp, Selected Letters, pp. 79 – 80)

Do you want to follow Jesus today? Then carry your cross – embrace your life more deeply and fully – as it comes each day from the hands of a God who calls you to continue Jesus' ministry in your own day - at home, at work, at school, wherever you find yourself. In the end, however, it is not enough for any of us to merely carry it. St. Francis de Sales observed: "The more wholly a cross comes from God, the more we ought to love it." (Ibid)

Happy Labor Day:

For many of us, Labor Day marks the conclusion of the summer season. In the Catholic tradition, work is more than a way to make a living; it is a form of continued participation in God's creative action. Labor Day provides an opportunity to give thanks to God for the gift of work which 'anoints' us with dignity; to ask for God's assistance in providing our nation and world with work for all that is decent and fair, and to invite God's help in making us faithful stewards of his creation to the benefit of all humankind. It is also an opportunity to pray for those who must work in jobs that ignore their dignity and for those who've lost their jobs and are seeking work at this time. May God continue to help to fulfill what He began in us!
