- ◇ Turkey or chicken gravy mix
- ◇ Instant mashed potatoes
- ◇ Cranberry sauce
- ◇ Canned yams

Thank you and God Bless you for your generosity!

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Daylight savings and spiritual disciplines

As of November 5th, 2023, we get an extra hour and it's a wonderful opportunity to invest in our spiritual growth. Most people don't like the end of Daylight-Saving Time because it gets dark so early in the evening. When we "fall back" in Autumn, we "gain" an hour, so to speak, which most of us set apart for an extra hour for sleep. Time change is a gift, because we are getting an extra hour to sleep, why don't we spend that time with the Lord in prayer and meditation, especially in scripture reading? An hour of spiritual rest will nourish our soul more than an extra hour of sleep ever could.

To help ourselves take advantage of this little 'life hack' make your spiritual plan. Spiritual growth is something God is pleased to bring about in our lives and it is through His word, prayer, and the Church to cultivate and nurture holiness in our lives. As in the words of Psalmist, "Blessed is the one who takes delight in the word of the Lord Day and Night".

National Vocation Awareness Week

The power and the grace of the sacraments: We are constantly reminded of the great beauty, power, and grace of these sacramental and liturgical moments in our faith journey. Despite the uncertainties, war, sickness, and violence, we come to believe that "nothing can contain the power and grace of the Sacraments." The Holy Spirit is still at work in our world, using the words and hands of priests to become present in a world that so desperately needs God.

Now—more than ever—we need God, and we need the sacraments. The sacraments of the Church are how God enters our lives in grace-filled encounters. As our Catechism reminds us, "The sacraments are efficacious signs of grace, instituted by Christ and entrusted to the Church, by which divine life is dispensed to us" (CCC, 1131). The sacraments are efficacious, which means that they do something. They aren't just nice things that pious believers receive to make them feel better. There is power and grace in each sacramental encounter, where we receive a share in the "divine life" of God. What a great gift that God freely gives us!

This week, the Church celebrates National Vocation Awareness Week. We each have a unique call, a unique vocation from God. We received that call through the grace of our baptism, "the basis of the whole Christian life, the gateway to life in the Spirit" (CCC, 1213). God calls and invites some of the baptized to respond to the grace of baptism by serving Him, the Church, and the People of God through vocations to the priesthood, religious, diaconate, and consecrated life. No matter which vocation God calls us to, we know that God desires our happiness and our holiness. We need courageous women and men at this important time in our Church and our world, and we should pray often for good and holy vocations to build up the Church. It should start from our home. "Come, O Holy Spirit and enlighten the hearts of young women and men to answer your call". Have a blessed week everyone!
