FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

The Epiphany of the Lord

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Today, we celebrate the feast of the Epiphany of the Lord. This feast reminds us of the universality of redemption and salvation. Celebration of Epiphany challenges us to emulate that same universal spirit in all our dealings and relationships with one another.

Our Gospel reading today speaks of the Magi, three wise persons, who followed the star they saw rising. The star brought them to a baby in a manger in the small insignificant town of Bethlehem. They brought gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh from their country – gifts fit for a king, the best in their countries. Saint John Chrysostom tells us, “By gold the power of a king is signified, by frankincense the honor of God, by myrrh the burial of the body; and accordingly, they offer Him gold as King, frankincense as God, myrrh as Man.”

The Magi brought the best from their country and the very best – the gift of themselves. Their long journey, the detours that they had to make and the risk they took – were all part of the gift! Real “gift-giving” is giving of ourselves – not things we possess, not the talents we have, not our knowledge and experience, not things tangible – but those intangibles, enduring, invisible, immeasurable, and eternal aspects of who we are in all the richest, the most profound and the deepest part of our life.

The gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh represented the purpose of their journey, and it was to worship the newborn King. And it should be ours too. We must never lose this sense of worship and if we do, we lose our direction in the Christian life, which is a journey towards the Lord, not towards ourselves. The real gift of the Magi was their “worship” and not the things they brought. Worship is praising the name of God and seeking his will and purpose. Worship is surrender of our will to God’s will and bringing our will into harmony with God’s will.

I want to encourage you to take a few moments each day of this week to be still and to Reflect on how you have been worshiping, how worshiping has been a part of your daily routines and how you have been seeking God’s will and purpose. May God bless you and your family.

Father John Peter Out of Town

I will also be visiting my family in India from January 15th - February 2nd. Please keep me in your prayers during this time of travel and be reassured of my prayers for you during my daily Masses.

Epiphany Home Blessing:

There is a catholic traditional home blessing related to the feast of Epiphany. Here are some quick tips that you can follow to bless your homes. At the end of each mass on Epiphany Sunday liturgy, I will Bless the Chalks. Families are invited to take one piece of Chalk and use it to write on your doors of your house, preferably on the top. Say this Prayer when you write down. The father of the family or anyone who is head of the family takes the blessed chalk, the father or anyone in the family reads the corresponding words as the kings inscribe their initials onto the lintel.

(The initials CMB also stand for “Christus Mansionem Benedicat”: “May Christ Bless This House”.) Final inscription on lintel should read: 2 0 + C + M + B + 2 4

House blessing Prayer:

Leader: Let us pray. O Lord, Almighty God, bless this house + that it may become a shelter of health, chastity, self-conquest, humility, goodness, mildness, obedience to the commandments, and thanksgiving to God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Upon this house and those who dwell herein may Your blessing remain forever, through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

The three wise men, Caspar, [Caspar inscribes ‘C’ on lintel] C
Melchior, [Melchior inscribes ‘M’] M and Balthasar [Balthasar inscribes ‘B’] B followed the star of God's Son who became man two thousand [inscribe the ‘2 0’ on left] 2 0
twenty-four years ago. [inscribe ‘2 4’ on right] 2 4
May Christ bless our dwelling, [place + after ‘2 0’] +
and remain with us throughout the new year, [+ after ‘C’] + and grant that our comings and goings [+ after ‘M’] +
will be in search of truth. [+ after ‘B’] +

WHEN TO TAKE DOWN CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS?

By: MICHAEL R. HEINLEIN from <https://www.simplycatholic.com/when-to-take-down-christmas-decorations/>

The Church's liturgical season of Christmas ends in the Ordinary Form of the Roman Rite with the movable feast of the Baptism of the Lord, which falls in early to mid-January. After revisions to the missal in 1962, the calendar of the Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite marks the end of Christmas on the feast of the Baptism of the Lord, fixed to Jan. 13. Previously, it had been long standing tradition to mark the end of Christmastime on Feb. 2 — the feast of the Lord's Presentation in the Temple, which is literally 40 days after Christmas, as indicated in Scripture.

Our homes are to be domestic churches, where God is at the center of our family life, as our call is to worship Him always and everywhere. And so it is important for us to live liturgically in the home.

So, then, it's recommended that if we put up Christmas decorations, we should consider [keeping] them up until the end of the Church's liturgical season of Christmas. But practically speaking, this isn't always possible. While we might need to discard our tree earlier, we can always keep up a Nativity scene longer, until the feast of the Lord's baptism or even until Feb. 2. However you choose to keep Christmas alive in your home is ultimately up to you.
