FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Sisters and brothers,

“You shall not...”

We are on our Lenten journey. If we want this Lent to be a fruitful one and want to be holy as the Lord is holy, there are many things that God expects us to avoid. The things on the “do not do” list include...

- Stealing
- Lying
- Slandering
- Cursing
- Hating
- Taking revenge
- Holding grudges
- Spreading slander
- Being unjust
- Being idle
- Causing others to stumble

So in the Salesian tradition, rather than focus on how to avoid the “do not do” list, we would be better off pursuing the “to do” list...

- ✓ Be gentle
- ✓ Be generous
- ✓ Be honest
- ✓ Bless others
- ✓ Love others
- ✓ Forgive others
- ✓ Let go
- ✓ Circulate truth
- ✓ Act justly
- ✓ Hold others up
- ✓ Pray for others

While enjoying success in avoiding these vices may be noteworthy, there is more to life than merely refraining from doing bad; there is also the matter of doing good!

In other words, what better way to “shall not” than to “shall do”?

Be sure to take a few still moments during the week. Bless yourself with stillness! Stillness means letting go off the inner chatter and opening our whole being to God who is beyond time doing anything else. Don't sow your desire in someone else's garden; just cultivate your own as best you can...

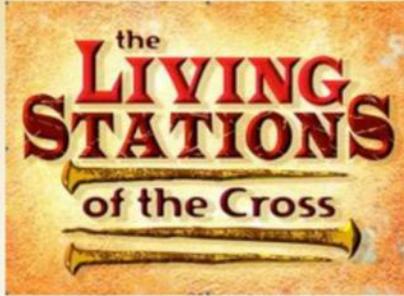

Leaving mangos for others....

An elderly man was digging holes in his garden. Seeing him hard at work, a neighbor asked him what he was doing. “Planting mango tress”, he answered.’ “Do you expect to eat fruits from this tress?”, the neighbor asked. “No”, the elderly man said. “I won't live long enough to enjoy the fruits, but others will. All my life, I have enjoyed mangos planted by other people. This is my way of showing them gratitude.

We are blessed by the faithfulness of many who have gone before us and others who continue to remain faithful to their calling. We have not met most of them and we may never meet many of them. Let us be grateful to them for their fidelity. They continue to leave mangoes for us. It is up to us now to leave mangoes for others. Let us be faithful to what we are called to do. We may not see the results, but others will. Have a Blessed Lent!

RICE BOWL: A SEASON FOR REFLECTION— OVERCOMING HUNGER

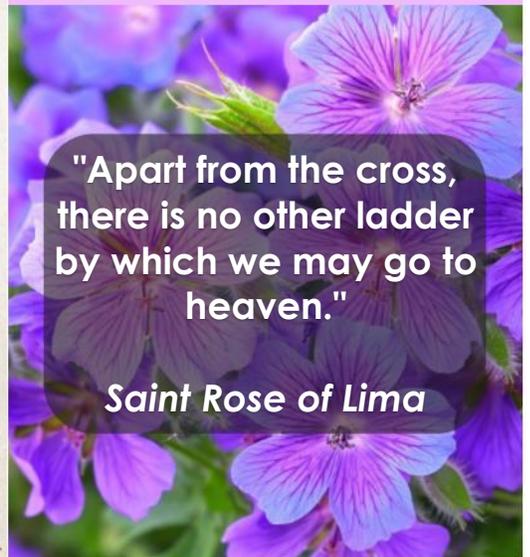

In Akwangagwel, Uganda, the climate is very hot and dry. Farmers in this region depend heavily on the rainy season for a successful harvest. But lately—due to the changing climate—the rain has been coming later than it used to and is more inconsistent. Sometimes, when it does rain, it causes flooding and ruins the crops. Learn how Adolf and Florence have taken the matter into their own hands, implementing new farming techniques they learned from a Catholic Relief Services program to improve their farm and fight against hunger in their community.

Visit csrricebowl.org to learn more and read this week's Story of Hope.

STEWARDSHIP FOOD FOR THOUGHT: SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

Abraham was prepared to sacrifice his only son, Isaac. St. Paul reminds us that God Himself "did not spare His own Son." Are my gifts to the Lord – of my resources, of my time, of myself – also sacrificial?

"Everyone say to himself: 'When was the last time I went to confession?' And if it has been a long time, don't lose another day! Go, the priest will be good. And Jesus, (will be) there, and Jesus is better than the priests - Jesus receives you. He will receive you with so much love!"

Be courageous, and go to confession."

Pope Francis
