FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

The Fourth Sunday of Lent is called "Laetare Sunday" (Latin) which means "Rejoice Sunday". Rose color vestments will be worn by the Priest or the Deacon. It calls forth the joyful anticipation of Easter. Remember, we are halfway through the Season of Lent, and we still have an ample opportunity to examine how free and prepared to embrace the joy of the Lord's Resurrection.

"We are truly God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to lead the life of good deeds which God prepared for us in advance." Lent is a time to celebrate the mercy, the generosity, and the kindness of God.

We certainly hear echoes of St. Paul's letter to the Ephesians in St. Francis de Sales' observations in his Treatise on the Love of God (II, 5) where he writes:

"Who now can have any doubt as to our abundant means of salvation since we have so great a Savior, in view of whom we have been made and by whose merits we have been ransomed?"

St. Francis de Sales continues:

"Far indeed was Adam's sin from overwhelming God's generosity; on the contrary, Adam's sin aroused God's generosity all the more and called it forth!"

Lent calls us to proclaim this truth: as much as God loved us by creating us, God loved us even more by redeeming us! As St. Francis de Sales claimed, "The state of redemption is a hundred times better than that of innocence."

In what remains of this season, dedicate yourself to thankfulness. Be grateful for God's mercy, generosity, and kindness to you and accept the salvation won for you in Christ!

Be kind enough to extend God's mercy, forgiveness, and kindness to one another. Be attentive to what goes on in your life and that of members of your family or someone in your Parish Community? How about just being present – just being there, standing fast while your brother or sister is struggling to hold on or maybe thinking of giving up? Try listening ... it can be redemptive... Try gentle and silent presence... it can be healing... Try praying... your prayer can be empowering...

"Give something, however small, to the one in need. For it is not small to one who has nothing. Neither is it small to God if we have given what we could" .... St. Gregory Nazianzen

RITE OF ELECTION: HOLY SPIRIT RCIA

The rite of election and the enrollment of names closes the period of the catechumenate, the lengthy period of formation of the catechumen's minds and hearts. This step is called election because the acceptance made by the Church is founded on the election by God, in whose name the Church acts. The step is also called the enrollment of names because as a pledge of fidelity the candidates inscribes their names in the book that list those who have been chosen for initiation.

"All grace flows from mercy, and the last hour abounds with mercy for us. Let no one doubt concerning the goodness of God; even if a person's sins were as dark as night, God's mercy is stronger than our misery. One thing alone is necessary; that the sinner set ajar the door of his heart, be it ever so little, to let in a ray of God's merciful grace, and then God will do the rest." (no. 1507, Diary of St. Faustina)

VOLUNTEERING AT CAMP TRANSFORMS LIVES

Catholic Charities Camp I Am Special offers an exceptional opportunity for young adults/teenagers to develop life skills while also providing companionship to someone with intellectual and developmental differences. Camp is a special place where:

- You'll develop effective communication skills to interact with people at every level - Campers, other Buddies, Catholic Charities leadership staff, parents and more.
- You'll learn professionalism and compassion through group activities - contributing to the growth and development of your Camper.
- You'll be challenged to quickly resolve diverse issues including, how to support your Camper with making his or her bed and Camper health and safety.
- You'll gain practical, real-life training on how to work as part of a team and help build the culture of your camp community.
- You'll develop innovative and fun ways to engage with your Camper and learn how to implement alternative plans when faced with unexpected changes to a routine.

"Being a Buddy at Catholic Charities Camp I Am Special showed me unconditional love in so many ways. Within a few days, hours, or even minutes you create an everlasting friendship with your Camper. Growing up I dreamed of becoming a veterinarian, but Camp showed me that I was called to do something else. I am now looking into occupational therapy because, after a few weeks of Buddying, I knew I wanted to do something like this forever." Becca Clark, Buddy

"I knew what being a Buddy looked like. I even knew what it might feel like. However, I was not ready for how being a Buddy was going to affect me. When I saw my Camper, everything changed. My purpose for the week went from obtaining service hours to becoming a friend. Through the years I volunteered over 10 weeks as a Buddy and then became a Camp Leader. In my second month of college, I switched my major from Biology to Applied Behavior Analysis. I now work full time with children with disabilities. Camp gave me patience, fortitude, and confidence, but above all, it gave me a passion and a career path." Matthew Harrington, Buddy
