CRS RICE BOWL: PALM SUNDAY—MODERN DAY SIMON OF CYRENE

Palm Sunday marks the beginning of Holy Week. As we walk with Jesus this week, we remember the countless women, children and men who carry heavy crosses even today: crosses of hunger, of vulnerability to climate change, or of a lack of resources. How—like Simon of Cyrene—can you help to carry the crosses of our sisters and brothers in your local community and around the world?

Visit csrcricebowl.org/holy-week to learn more.

THANK YOU AND WELCOME

Thank you to our outgoing members on the Pastoral Council! Your ministry and service to our community is greatly appreciated.

We would also like to welcome our new members of our Pastoral Council. Our prayers are with you as you provide your pastoral insights and work to our Holy Spirit Family!

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

“Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, the king of Israel”. JN: 12:12-13

We are almost at the close of our Lenten Season. Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord marks the beginning of Holy Week. Prior to the second Vatican council, the fifth Sunday of Lent was called “Passion Sunday,” and Palm Sunday was observed on the sixth Sunday. Currently the Roman Rite denotes Palm Sunday as “Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord,” which combines the two Sunday observances.

On this day, the Church began to make the Sufferings of Jesus the focus of reflection and prayer. Palm Sunday of the passion of the Lord is often thought of as the remembering and reliving of the suffering of Jesus. The word passion seems to have the same meaning as suffering. Passion, however, has a much deeper meaning. It is important for us to note that suffering is only one of the consequences of passion. Passion is an eager interest, a feeling of intense enthusiasm towards or compelling desire or longing for someone or something. Passion is determination, conviction, commitment, and love. Passion is a strong desire, a hunger, a thirst, and an urgent longing that can move you and get you to do amazing things. Passion can move you through difficult, troublesome, and trying times because you don't care about the cost of fulfilling your desire, satisfying your hunger and thirst, and achieving what you are passionate about.

As we remember the Lord's passion, let us not stop with recalling the events that led to his death. Let us get in touch with our own passion. What are we passionate about? Is there something deep inside of us that moves us, urges us, and keeps us going? What gives meaning and direction to our lives? Do we have a hunger or thirst, or urgent longing that holds us together and keeps us alive and moving?

Reflect on how you share in the passion and cross of Jesus. Remember those who have heavy burdens to carry.

Remember the innocent, especially children, women, men and the helpless who must suffer without support.

Reflect and pray...

What do you need to do to develop a “well-disciplined” life?

What do you need to do to move into and face difficult situations?

Pray for those who must live in hostile situations.

What does it mean to you to cry out “Hosanna” - Lord, “save now”?

“Behold your King comes”, “Hosanna” to the “Son of David” - a King like David, King of “Truth, Justice, Integrity and Peace”. What does it mean to cry out to the king of “Truth, Justice, Peace and Integrity”?

Please, take a few moments each day of this week to be still and get in touch with your own inner longings! Bless yourself with good, noble, wholesome, and redeeming desires! What does the “passion” of Jesus mean to you? How do you share in that Passion? Have a Blessed Holy Week!

CATHOLIC CHARITIES Camp I Am Special

VOLUNTEERING AT CAMP TRANSFORMS LIVES

Catholic Charities Camp I Am Special offers an exceptional opportunity for young adults/teenagers to develop life skills while also providing companionship to someone with intellectual and developmental differences. Camp is a special place where:

- You'll develop effective communication skills to interact with people at every level - Campers, other Buddies, Catholic Charities leadership staff, parents and more.
- You'll learn professionalism and compassion through group activities - contributing to the growth and development of your Camper.
- You'll be challenged to quickly resolve diverse issues including: how to support your Camper with making his or her bed and Camper health and safety.
- You'll gain practical, real-life training on how to work as part of a team and help build the culture of your camp community.
- You'll develop innovative and fun ways to engage with your Camper and learn how to implement alternative plans when faced with unexpected changes to a routine.

"Being a Buddy at Catholic Charities Camp I Am Special showed me unconditional love in so many ways. Within a few days, hours, or even minutes you create an everlasting friendship with your Camper. Growing up I dreamed of becoming a veterinarian, but Camp showed me that I was called to do something else. I am now looking into occupational therapy because, after a few weeks of Buddying, I knew I wanted to do something like this forever." Becca Clark, Buddy

"I knew what being a Buddy looked like. I even knew what it might feel like. However, I was not ready for how being a Buddy was going to affect me. When I saw my Camper, everything changed. My purpose for the week went from obtaining service hours to becoming a friend. Through the years I volunteered over 30 weeks as a Buddy and then became a Camp Leader. In my second month of college, I switched my major from Biology to Applied Behavior Analysis. I now work full time with children with disabilities. Camp gave me patience, fortitude, and confidence, but above all, it gave me a passion and a career path." Matthew Harrington, Buddy
