SCAM ALERT

As we are in the summer season, please be aware of new email, text, call and social media scams. If you receive a message or email from Fr. John Peter asking if you are available and can send him money or gift cards, even to surprise staff or others.

PLEASE IGNORE!!! This is a scam!!!

Common signs of scams are incorrect email addresses or unfamiliar caller id locations; scammers are now able to change caller id numbers to pretend to be a known number as well. Inconsistent or improper tone of language are also signs of scammers. Social media scams will use official photos but have low number of followers and posts will be irrelevant to the person.

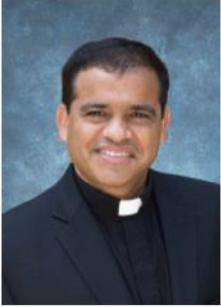

Please be careful and feel free to call the church office to double check any inquiries.

STEWARDSHIP FOOD FOR THOUGHT: THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's reading from St. Paul explains the "divine economy" of stewardship – "The relief of others ought not to impoverish you; there should be a certain equality. Your plenty at the present time should supply their need so that their surplus may in turn one day supply your need."

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

It's hard to imagine that I will be completing one year at the Holy Spirit Catholic Church as an Administrator and will assume as a Pastor of our Faith Community from July 1, 2024. It's been a wonderful faith journey for me past one year, learning the culture and tradition of the parish. While getting acclimated to the administrative responsibilities of the parish, I am also trying my best to meet with and get to know each other whenever possible. Parishioners that I encountered and met with have been very gracious, welcoming and loving towards me. I am so happy to be here at this wonderful faith community.

A Church Community that is deeply centered around the Catholic teachings, Traditions, Faith of our Fathers, the Holy Eucharist, and of course the 'Holy Bible', becomes vibrant, lively, welcoming, and faithful missionary community. I pray that the Holy Spirit will continue to inspire us to build up together spiritually as one community of believers with one mind and heart. I thank God for your faithfulness, generosity, and continued support for our Church and for one another.

St. Francis de Sales offers us some useful advice in reflecting the gospel passage today. While we celebrate God's gift of life, we are invited also to accept the reality of death. As we know, life is full of so many people, relationships, gifts, blessings, challenges and endeavors that enhance and nourish the human spirit! How do we truly, fully and completely enjoy them without clinging to them? The answer - by being generous! Let us learn accept that life and death are part and parcel of life journey. Wish you everyone Happy Independence Day.

INDEPENDENCE DAY!

On July 4th, we celebrate Independence Day. For most people that I know, the Fourth of July is a day of patriotic pageantry: flags, fireworks, and festivities with family and friends. For me, and I hope, for you as well, it is a day to reflect on freedom: its high price as well as its sacred meaning. Our troops have historically paid a high price to maintain our freedom and we, gratefully, honor them as our nation's heroes and heroines. It is good for us to remember that our founders were so passionate about freedom that they challenged the oppressive forces, and our troops continue to passionately challenge the tyrannies of our day.

Besides the July 4th parades, flag-waving, fireworks, and other festivities, let us reflect on our freedom and strive to become more passionate about living, defending, and protecting that freedom for all. Freedom is often identified with the ability to choose according to personal preferences and to live without boundaries. True freedom is freedom to be, to live and to function meaningfully and effectively even within limits and boundaries. Such freedom is freedom to take a stand toward conditions of life and not freedom from conditions themselves. French philosopher, author, and journalist Albert Camus once said, "Freedom is nothing but a chance to be better." We know that in our country, we have ample opportunities to better ourselves and to help and support others as they strive to better themselves.

It is also good for us to, gratefully, remember the many freedoms that we enjoy, which many of our brothers and sisters only dream about. We have the freedom to live where we want, to choose our own career and vocation, to speak our minds freely, to gather in groups publicly, to choose our religious beliefs, to start our own business, to map out our own future, even to plan out our own funeral... True freedom is freedom to be even in adverse situations. It is freedom to be what God calls us to be. It is, as St. Francis de Sales tells us, to "be who you are and be that well so that you may bring honor to the master craftsman whose handiwork you are!" He tells us that we are given the gift of freedom to enable us to love - to love God above everything else and everything else in God and for God. That is reason we have the motto, "IN GOD WE TRUST".

Let us take a few moments this week to remember those who have made and continue to make great sacrifices for our freedom. Be grateful to them and send them your blessings. May God Bless the United States of America! (Adopted from Fr. Gus, MSFS)

"Without God there is no virtue because there is no prompting of the conscience...without God there is a coarsening of the society; without God democracy will not and cannot long endure...if we ever forget that we are One Nation Under God, then we will be a Nation gone under." --- Ronald Reagan, 40th U.S. President

Statement from Bishop Erik Pohlmeier Regarding Unapproved Religious Orders and Fundraising Efforts

It has come to our attention that an article has been circulating about the establishment of a new Carmelite monastery in High Springs, Fla., led by Sister Loretta-Maria of the Blessed Trinity and the Rosary. This monastery is described as an autonomous entity, independent of any diocese, and not under the direct oversight or approval of the Vatican.

I wish to clarify that this new religious order and its associated activities are not approved by the Vatican or myself as the bishop of the Diocese of St. Augustine. The diocese recognizes and adheres to the guidelines set forth by the Holy See regarding the establishment and operation of religious communities. Any religious community or order operating within a diocese must be in full communion with and receive approval from the Vatican and the local bishop. Furthermore, the article states that Bishop Athanasius Schneider has given “his blessing” to Sister Loretta-Maria’s efforts. Bishop Schneider is the auxiliary bishop of Astana in Kazakhstan and therefore, has no governing authority or jurisdiction in the Diocese of St. Augustine.

Additionally, it is important to address the fundraising efforts related to this new monastery. The faithful of the Diocese of St. Augustine should be aware that the High Springs Carmelite monastery has no relationship with the Discalced Carmelite Nuns who moved from Buffalo, N.Y., to Jacksonville in January 2024. The Jacksonville Carmelites, who are approved by the Vatican, are a legitimate monastic community under the vigilance of myself as bishop of the Diocese of St. Augustine.

We urge the faithful to support only those communities that are in full communion with the Church's legitimate authorities. The Jacksonville Carmelites of the Monastery of the Little Flower of Jesus have received proper approval and are in good standing with the diocese and the Vatican. Contributions to this approved community can be made through their official website by visiting <https://www.carmeljax.org/how-can-i-help>.

May we all continue to seek the greater glory of God through unity and obedience to the Holy Roman Catholic Church.

Yours in Christ,
Most Rev. Erik Pohlmeier
Bishop of St. Augustine
