MARK THE DATE!

Saturday, November 16th 8 am– 12 pm
Fall Cleanup

- While we may not have the fall colors of New England, our northern Florida climate allows us to have color and interest in our gardens year-round.
  - We look forward to your participation in this 18 year tradition where parishioners (green thumb NOT NEEDED!) get together for a morning of fellowship and light clean-up work in beautifying our parish gardens.
  - Bring gloves, hand cultivators, pruners, rakes and spades.
  - We will provide the cookies, water and "bug juice".
  - Don't miss the fun! Many hands make light work!!!
- Looking forward to seeing you! (Questions Text "HSGM" at 610-751-4815)

The Holy Land Shepherds

The carving of the Olive Wood Tree has been inherited since the time of our Lord, Jesus Christ. It was passed down from father to son for many generations including our family. More than 80% of the Christian community income comes from tourism and the olive wood trade. However, due to the ongoing war and the tremendous decrease in tourism the Christian community has suffered many hardships that led many Christian Families to leave their homes in search of work and safety.

Our mission is to support and strengthen the presence of Christianity in the Holy Land by selling their beautiful olive wood artifacts here in the United States. We have been blessed and grateful to have had the opportunity to travel to different parishes all around the United States for the past 15 years to represent these less fortunate Christians. We are happy to announce that we will be visiting your parish on November 9th & 10th.

We encourage you to look over their beautiful hand carved items. will be accepting payments in cash, credit cards, and checks. May God bless you abundantly and safeguard you in all endeavors.

TEN WAYS TO PRAY AND TO ASSIST THE POOR SOULS IN PURGATORY

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

It is appropriate to pray for all Holy Souls in Purgatory in this month of remembrance. Here are ten ways we can pray for our deceased family members, friends and relatives, and for all our brothers and sisters who have died in Christ.

1. Pray the Novena to the Holy Souls by St. Alphonsus Liguori.
2. Offer up your Holy Communion for the souls in purgatory.
3. Have Masses said for your departed loved ones, especially on the anniversary of his or her death and in the month of November.
4. Pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet for the intention of the Holy Souls.
5. Eucharistic Adoration: visit the Blessed Sacrament to make acts of reparation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus on behalf of those in purgatory.
6. Sacrifices: practice small acts of self-denial throughout your day and offer these penances up for the poor souls.
7. Give alms: The giving of material assistance to the poor has always been considered a penance that can be offered for the Holy Souls. "For almsgiving saves from death and purges all sin" (Tobit 12:9).
8. Ask for the intercession of saints who were known to be great friends of the Holy Souls during their lifetime to join you in prayer for the faithful departed: St. Nicholas of Tolentino, St. Gertrude the Great, St. Catherine of Genoa, St. Padre Pio, St. Philip Neri, St. John Macías, St. Faustina Kowalska, St. Joseph, Our Blessed Mother, and other Saints.
9. When passing by a cemetery: Pray the short Eternal Rest prayer: "Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord. And let the perpetual light shine upon them. And may the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen."
10. Pray to earn indulgences for the holy souls: On all the days from November 1 to November 8, a plenary indulgence, applicable only to the Poor Souls, is granted to those who visit a cemetery and pray, even if only mentally, for the departed (standard requirements for indulgences apply*). Partial indulgences are granted to those who recite Lauds or Vespers of the Office of the Dead, and to those who recite the prayer, "Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace".

Scriptural basis for Prayers for the Dead:

The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches us about the purpose of purgatory and the importance of praying for the dead:

All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification, to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven.

The Church gives the name Purgatory to this final purification of the elect, which is entirely different from the punishment of the damned. The Church formulated her doctrine of faith on Purgatory especially at the Councils of Florence and Trent. The tradition of the Church, by reference to certain texts of Scripture, speaks of a cleansing fire:

As for certain lesser faults, we must believe that, before the Final Judgment, there is a purifying fire. He, who is true, says that whoever utters blasphemy against the Holy Spirit will be pardoned neither at this age nor at the age to come. From this sentence we understand that certain offenses can be forgiven in this age, but certain others in the age to come.

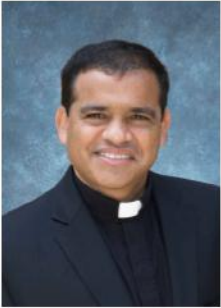

This teaching is also based on the practice of prayer for the dead, already mentioned in Sacred Scripture: "Therefore [Judas Maccabeus] made atonement for the dead, that they might be delivered from their sin." (2 Macc 12:46) From the beginning the Church has honored the memory of the dead and offered prayers in suffrage for them, above all the Eucharistic sacrifice, so that, thus purified, they may attain the beatific vision of God. The Church also commends almsgiving, indulgence, and works of penance undertaken on behalf of the dead:

Let us help and commemorate them. If Job's sons were purified by their father's sacrifice, why would we doubt that our offerings for the dead bring them some consolation? Let us not hesitate to help those who have died and to offer our prayers for them.

"As we enter heaven, we will see them, so many of them coming towards us and thanking us. We will ask who they are, and they will say a poor soul you prayed for in purgatory."

~ Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

A great thanks to all those who were involved in the installation Mass and luncheon celebration!

Thank you to Deacon Pat, the staff, finance council and pastoral council who attended the Mass and participated in the installation.

A great thanks to the liturgical ministries that served the Mass: ushers, sacristans, extraordinary ministers of holy communion, lectors, altar servers, and the adult and children's choir.

Thank you to all those who organized the luncheon as well.

Blessings to all of you!
