CATHOLIC CHARITIES
Transforming Lives

January 29, 2025

Dear Holy Spirit Parishioners,

On behalf of our staff and clients, we sincerely thank you for your support of our 2024 Share Your Blessings initiative. Each year, we are deeply moved by the generosity and kindness of our donors, and you are truly a blessing to our clients. Your thoughtfulness and care go far beyond the number of gifts you provided.

- Because of your generosity, during the Christmas season, when clients came to pick up their gifts, there were smiles, tears, gratitude, and even laughter. Many of these families have been struggling and seeking peace and comfort. Thanks to you, they now carry fond memories of the blessings they received.
- Together, you and other compassionate donors contributed 7,596 gifts and $ 2,274 in gift cards, making heartfelt wishes come true for families in our community.

*Love and kindness are never in vain.
They always leave an impact, bringing blessings to both the receiver and the giver.*

With deepest gratitude,

Angela Vastrebova

JUBILEE 2025: YEAR OF HOPE

The Jubilee Logo

The logo shows four stylized figures, representing all of humanity, coming from the four corners of the earth. They embrace each other to indicate the solidarity and fraternity which should unite all peoples. The figure at the front is holding onto the cross. It is not only the sign of the faith which this lead figure embraces, but also of hope, which can never be abandoned, because we are always in need of hope, especially in our moments of greatest need. There are the rough waves under the figures, symbolizing the fact that life's pilgrimage does not always go smoothly in calm waters. Often the circumstances of daily life and events in the wider world require a greater call to hope. That's why we should pay special attention to the lower part of the cross which has been elongated and turned into the shape of an anchor which is let down into the waves.

The anchor is well known as a symbol of hope. In maritime jargon the 'anchor of hope' refers to the reserve anchor used by vessels involved in emergency maneuvers to stabilize the ship during storms. It is worth noting that the image illustrates the pilgrim's journey not as an individual undertaking, but rather as something communal, marked by an increasing dynamism leading one ever closer to the cross.

The cross in the logo is by no means static, but it is also dynamic. It bends down towards humanity, not leaving human beings alone, but stretching out to them to offer the certainty of its presence and the security of hope. At the bottom of the logo is the motto of the 2025 Jubilee Year: Peregrinantes in Spem (Pilgrims in hope), represented in green letters.

What is the Jubilee?

"Jubilee" is the name given to a particular year; the name comes from the instrument used to mark its launch. In this case, the instrument in question is the yobel, the ram's horn, used to proclaim the Day of Atonement (Yom Kippur). This (Jewish) holiday occurs every year, but it takes on special significance when it marks the beginning of a Jubilee year. We can find an early indication of it in the Bible: a Jubilee year was to be marked every 50 years, since this would be an "extra" year, one which would happen every seven weeks of seven years, i.e., every 49 years (cf. Leviticus 25:8-13). Even though it wasn't easy to organize, it was intended to be marked as a time to re-establish a proper relationship with God, with one another, and with all of creation, and involved the forgiveness of debts, the return of misappropriated land, and a fallow period for the fields.

Quoting the prophet Isaiah, the Gospel of Luke describes Jesus' mission in this way: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord," (Luke 4:18-19; cf. Isaiah 61:1-2). Jesus lives out these words in his daily life, in his encounters with others and in his relationships, all of which bring about liberation and conversion.

In 1300, Pope Boniface VIII called the first Jubilee, also known as a "Holy Year," since it is a time in which God's holiness transforms us. The frequency of Holy Years has changed over time: at first, they were celebrated every 100 years; later, in 1343 Pope Clement VI reduced the gap between Jubilees to every 50 years, and in 1470 Pope Paul II made it every 25 years. There have also been "extraordinary" Holy Years: for example, in 1933 Pope Pius XI chose to commemorate the 1900th anniversary of the Redemption, and in 2015 Pope Francis proclaimed the Year of Mercy as an extraordinary jubilee. The way in which Jubilee Years are marked has also changed through the centuries: originally the Holy Year consisted of a pilgrimage to the Roman Basilicas of St. Peter and St. Paul, later other signs were added, such as the Holy Door. By participating in the Holy Year, one is granted a plenary indulgence.

JUBILEE 2025: YEAR OF HOPE

Celebrating the Jubilee of Deacons in Parishes, February 21-23

The Permanent Deacon

By Deacon David Yazdiya

The Book of Acts, chapter 6, records the beginning of the diaconate. The diaconate was established because the Apostles needed more time for prayer and the ministry of the word. The original deacons were chosen for their dedication to the Church and their faith in Christ. Stephen, the first to be chosen, also became the Church's first martyr. The first deacons were ordained by the Apostles through the laying on of hands for the ministry of service.

In Acts 8, we learn how the deacon Philip, led by the Holy Spirit, went to preach in Samaria. He was then sent by the Spirit to explain the Scriptures to the Ethiopian in the chariot, converting him to Christianity. St. Paul's first letter to Timothy, chapter 3, provides further insight into the role of the deacon. Over time, the permanent diaconate declined, and by the Middle Ages, it became exclusively a transitional step on the path to priesthood.

The Second Vatican Council restored the office of permanent deacon as a permanent rank in the Catholic hierarchy—bishop, priest and deacon. Pope Paul VI implemented the Council's decision in 1967 with the apostolic letter Sacrum Diaconatus Ordinem (The Sacred Order of the Diaconate). The ministry of the permanent deacon includes three dimensions: liturgy, word and service.

During the sacred liturgy, the deacon assists the bishop and priests. At Mass, the deacon proclaims the Gospel and, when invited by the celebrant, may preach the homily. He also assists at the altar. The deacon may baptize children under age 7, witness and bless marriages outside of Mass, preside at the Liturgy of the Hours and lead funeral liturgies. While these are the more visible duties of the deacon, his call to serve the Church outside of the liturgical setting is equally significant. The bishop may assign a deacon to minister to those in prison, care for the sick in hospitals and nursing homes, or serve merchant sailors when their ships dock at a port. When assigned to a parish, the deacon serves under the direction of the pastor, supporting him and his ministry in the most fruitful ways possible.

Before Bishop Victor Galeone became bishop of St. Augustine in 2001, there was no deacon formation program in the diocese. All deacons serving in the Diocese of St. Augustine at that time had been ordained in other dioceses. In 2003, Bishop Galeone asked Fr. Michael Morgan, now Monsignor, to develop and implement a permanent diaconate program for the diocese. With the assistance of Deacons Paul Pettie and Jack Baker, along with many priests from the diocese, the first formation class was ordained on June 3, 2006. Ordination classes followed in 2008, 2011, 2015 and 2022. The diocese is currently forming a new class for ordination in 2030.

As mentioned, many permanent deacons serving in the diocese were ordained in other dioceses throughout the world. The deacons of the Diocese of St. Augustine serve with great dedication to the ministry to which they have been called. Please feel free to ask the deacon at your parish about his call to the ministry.
