CALLED TO SHARE BREAD FOR LIFE

Holy Week, a sacred time in the liturgical year, invites us to journey with Christ through his Passion, Death and Resurrection. As we witness the Last Supper and Jesus' gift of the Eucharist, we are reminded of our call to be bread broken for others. Let us draw strength from the Bread of Life and dedicate ourselves to serving our sisters and brothers who bear heavy crosses, bringing hope and the joy of the resurrection to the world. Visit crsricebowl.org/holy-week to learn more.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

"Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, the king of Israel". JN: 12:12-13

We are almost at the close of our Lenten Season. Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord marks the beginning of Holy Week. Prior to the second Vatican council, the fifth Sunday of Lent was called "Passion Sunday," and Palm Sunday was observed on the sixth Sunday. Currently the Roman Rite denotes Palm Sunday as "Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord," which combines the two Sunday observances.

On this day, the Church began to make the Sufferings of Jesus the focus of reflection and prayer. Palm Sunday of the passion of the Lord is often thought of as the remembering and reliving of the suffering of Jesus. The word passion seems to have the same meaning as suffering. Passion, however, has a much deeper meaning. It is important for us to note that suffering is only one of the consequences of passion. Passion is an eager interest, a feeling of intense enthusiasm towards or compelling desire or longing for someone or something. Passion is determination, conviction, commitment, and love. Passion is a strong desire, hunger, thirst, and an urgent longing that can move you and get you to do amazing things. Passion can move you through difficult, troublesome, and trying times because you don't care about the cost of fulfilling your desire, satisfying your hunger and thirst, and achieving what you are passionate about?

As we remember the Lord's passion, let us not stop with recalling the events that led to his death. Let us get in touch with our own passion. What are we passionate about? Is there something deep inside of us that moves us, urges us, and keeps us going? What gives meaning and direction to our lives? Do we have hunger or thirst, or urgent longing that holds us together and keeps us alive and moving?

During this Holy week, we will remember Jesus being betrayed, tried, judged, condemned, and crucified and dying on a cross. We will remember Jesus giving himself totally in life and in death fulfilling his passion. We are often challenged to make difficult choices, face difficult situations and work with difficult people. We can face them only if we really hunger and thirst, if we really desire...if we are really passionate about! If we are passionate and passionately strive for God and God's ways, we will do those things that are difficult and troublesome... even carry the cross if that is what it takes to fulfill God's plan and purpose for us.

Reflect on how you share in the passion and cross of Jesus. Remember those who have heavy burdens to carry. Remember the innocent, especially children, women, men, the defenseless and the helpless who must suffer without support...

Reflect and pray...

What do you need to do to develop a "well-disciplined" life? What do you need to do to move into and face difficult situations? Pray for those who must live in hostile situations.

What does it mean to you to cry out "Hosanna" - Lord, "save now"? What does it mean to cry out to the king of "Truth, Justice, Peace and Integrity"?

Please, take a few moments each day of this week to be still and get in touch with your own inner longings! Bless yourself with good, noble, wholesome, and redeeming desires! What does the "Passion" of Jesus mean to you? How do you share in that Passion? Have a Blessed Holy Week!

"The Cross is the way of Paradise, but only when it's borne willingly."
~ St. Paul of the Cross
