STEWARDSHIP FOOD FOR THOUGHT: EASTER SUNDAY

In the second reading today, St. Paul reminds the Colossians that they have been raised with Christ, exhorting them to “be intent on the things above rather than on things of earth.” We too, have been raised with Christ. Let us rejoice and be glad!

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

"HE IS RISEN"

Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Risen Lord,

Our Lenten journey brings us to the Joy of Easter and reminds us to move on with confidence in the presence of the Risen Lord. It's a celebration of a new life, new beginnings, and a new way of encountering the Resurrected Lord. We celebrate our call to be an Easter People, a people transformed by the death and Resurrection of Jesus, a people who must continue to journey in faith, in hope and in love. We must move on and meet Jesus, alive, where we are, now, at this point in our history.

The disciples and the women who had the firsthand experience of the Risen Lord challenge us now to be open to the Lord and his ways. The Lord has his own way of surprising us! He comes to us through the most unexpected people, events, places, and situations! Easter is just another way that God chose to reveal the power of His steadfast, unconditional, unconquerable, and benevolent love for us through His Son, Jesus.

Our daily encounter and relationship with Jesus in the Holy Eucharist and other devotional practices invite us to believe that we are "Easter People" called to believe in his Resurrection without understanding. Real faith is born of relationships. To believe is to relate...to believe is to trust...to believe is to be intimate...to believe is to be in communion. Our belief in the Resurrection and our commitment to live a resurrected life is the result of our communion with the Risen Christ.

May the Holy Spirit bless you, transform your disbelief, doubts, and fears, and empower you to move on with confidence in the presence of the Risen Lord on your journey, as you go about doing your daily chores and fulfilling your responsibilities as a faithful Catholic Christian in the world today.

Dear Friends, from the bottom of my heart, I wish every one of you a very Happy and Joy-filled Easter and, I wish you a Faith-filled journey through this Easter season during these trying times. May the Risen Lord bring you the richest and the finest of His blessings as you gather to celebrate your "Easter Joy" with your family and your loved ones and May He keep you safe in the center of His love. God bless you and your family!

"The resurrection of Jesus Christ is the foundation of our Christian faith and the source of our eternal hope". ~ Saint Leo the Great
