Parish Mission

"To be the light of our World by: Praying and Celebrating as a Eucharistic Community, serving those in need with unconditional love & generosity."

POPE LEO XIV

O God, who chose your servant Pope Leo XIV in succession to the Apostle Peter as shepherd of the whole flock, look favorably on the supplications of your people and grant that, as Vicar of Christ on earth, he may confirm his brethren and that the whole Church may be in communion with him in the bond of unity, love and peace, so that in you, the shepherd of souls, all may know the truth and attain life eternal. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

"I give you a new commandment: Love one another"

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

A story is told about a priest who was finishing up a series on marriage. At the end of the program, he was giving out small wooden crosses to each married couple. He said, "Place this cross in the room in which you fight the most and you will be reminded of Jesus' new commandment, and you won't argue as much." One woman came up after the program and said: "Father, you'd better give me five crosses." St. Thomas Aquinas defined love thus: "Love is willing the good of the other." And According to Mahatma Gandhi, "A coward is incapable of exhibiting love; it is the prerogative only of the brave."

Gradually, as we approach the birth of the Church at Pentecost, we need to listen to how Jesus envisaged his community. This gospel periscope gives the essentials. At the head of the Christian community stands the glorified Son of Man, in whom God is glorified. But this is no distant figurehead, for he will come to be present among his disciples. How? In the love which his disciples show for one another. One is reminded of the legend about the aged St John, wheeled into the church at Ephesus. When asked for the message of Jesus, all he would say was, 'My little children, love one another.'

St. Augustine said love and do whatever you like. You don't need preachers or lots of words, all you need is love. And he is right, of course, if we really knew how to love; if divine charity truly informed our character and choices; if the author of love God the Father Himself, if the incarnation of love- God the Son, if the very Spirit of love- God the Holy Spirit, truly shaped our hearts, relationships and actions, the world will change. But we often fail to love one another. Jesus challenges today that if we are to understand anything at all about God then we must understand that God's driving force is nothing else other than love. Yes, He knew living lives of love was the best way to fulfillment, satisfaction, and greater knowledge of God. Just love and do whatever you like! Love as deeply as you can because through love we can heal the world.

~ "God loves each of us as if there were only one of us".
St. Augustine

Pilgrimage to Italy May 23 – June 3, 2025

Dear friends,

Please keep us in your prayers as we travel to Italy as "Pilgrims of Hope" in this Jubilee Year. Our pilgrimage will include many well-known Holy Places as well as some lesser – known places in and around Italy. We will have the opportunity to celebrate Holy Mass in every holy Site that we visit, and we will certainly remember you in our daily Mass. Pray that this pilgrimage will be a memorable, meaningful trip and a magnificent way to celebrate Jubilee Year.

Peace and Blessings,
Fr. John Peter Arul, MSFS

NOW HIRING: PART TIME YOUTH DIRECTOR

Holy Spirit Catholic Church is looking for an enthusiastic, fun, patient, and genuine individual to facilitate the spiritual growth and development of youth, providing them with both a voice and the opportunity to grow as disciples of Christ.

The main responsibilities of a Youth Director are, but not restricted to: share responsibility for and collaborate with pastor, staff and Youth Group Core Team to develop, implement and update the parish's vision and goals as they relate to youth ministry; attend staff meetings; plan opportunities for youth to experience Christian community, develop relationships of trust and support, and explore, celebrate, and share their Catholic faith and identity; develop an outreach plan for connecting disconnected youth; and plan and lead youth group gatherings, ensuring the integration of formation, service, and social opportunities

Please contact the church office if interested.

A Statement from Bishop Erik Pohlmeier on the Election of a New Pope!

Jacksonville, Fla. – With deep gratitude to the Holy Spirit, I join the faithful of the Diocese of St. Augustine and Catholics around the world in joyfully welcoming our new Holy Father, Pope Robert Francis Provost, now Pope Leo XIV.

It is a great honor for the Church in the United States to offer a son of the faith to serve the Universal Church. It is also a moment of special pride for our local Church, as Pope Leo XIV comes from the Augustinian Order, whose rich spiritual tradition is closely tied to our diocesan patron, St. Augustine. May our new pope reflect well the wisdom and pastoral heart of that great saint.

The election of a new pope is always a sacred moment in the life of the Church—a time of unity, hope and renewed purpose. As the successor of Saint Peter, Pope Leo XIV assumes the great responsibility of guiding the People of God during a time marked by both great opportunity and deep challenge.

In a world often shaped by secularism and cultural confusion, many hearts are longing for truth, healing, and a renewed encounter with Jesus Christ. Pope Leo XIV is called to proclaim the Gospel with clarity and compassion, to promote the dignity of every human life, to encourage vocations and to strengthen family life with the love of a shepherd.

By choosing the name Leo XIV, the Holy Father signals a deep commitment to the Church's social teaching. This is a call to all of us to deepen our own commitment to a life of charity and service, inspired by the Gospel and guided by the Church's wisdom.

I invite all Catholics in our diocese to lift Pope Leo XIV in prayer. May the Lord grant him courage, wisdom and peace as he begins his ministry. May his leadership bring unity to the Church and draw people everywhere into deeper communion with Christ.

We entrust our new pope to the maternal care of Mary, Mother of the Church, and to the protection of St. Joseph. May their intercession guide and strengthen him in the days ahead.

*+Most Rev. Erik Pohlmeier
Bishop of the Diocese of St. Augustine*
