FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Catholic Father's Day: St Joseph and The Beatitudes!

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

St. Joseph, the patron saint of the Universal church is a model for all the fathers. As we celebrate "Father's Day" or "Catholic Father's Day", it's an opportunity for Catholic men—and the women who love them—to reflect on what it means to be a father after The Father's own heart. The Beatitudes are one surprising, often overlooked, source Catholic men can turn to for guidance in becoming the men, husbands, and fathers our families need us to be. Pope Francis has called the Beatitudes our "guide on the path of Christian life." Of course, God leads by example. As such, in addition to being a call to Christian discipleship, the Beatitudes also could be said to reveal something about the ways God the Father relates to us, his children. Seen in this light, the Beatitudes present a unique opportunity for Christian men to become godly dads. So, let us look at the 8 Beatitudes which can be understood and can shed light on a uniquely Christian vision of masculinity, in general, and fatherhood, in particular. Want to be an awesome dad?

Here's a sample of how the 8 Beatitudes can help you be the father God is calling you to be.

Blessed Are Dads Who Are Poor in Spirit:

Seeks to be a father after THE Father's own heart. Being a dad is on-the-job training. No one has figured it out. Don't pretend you do. Go to God every day. Ask him to teach you to be the husband and father, he wants you to be the husband and father your wife and children need you to be.

Blessed Are the Dads Who Mourn:

Be not afraid of feelings. Empathize with your family's tears, fears, and struggles. In scripture, "mourning" doesn't mean "be sad" so much as it means "cultivate a compassionate heart." It is not your job to fix or feel judged by your wife or kids' feelings. It is your job to be present to your wife and kids, to understand why they feel as they do, to show that you care, and to help them work through their feelings in godly ways

Blessed Are the Dads Who Are Meek:

Meekness isn't weakness. Cultivate the humble strength of a listening heart. In biblical Greek, the word for "meek" is "prauss", it was adjective used to describe a war horse that is not easily spooked in battle and responds readily to its rider's commands. A real leader listens first. The father who is authentically meek is not afraid to listen to God and to attend to the needs his wife and children bring to him especially when doing so requires him to grow, change, or learn new skills.

Blessed Are the Dads Who Hunger and Thirst for Righteousness:

Awesome Dads are on a Mission from God. Live for Him. Lead your family To Him.

Research shows that when dads model discipleship in their lives and relationships and take the lead in prayer, faith formation, and character training in the home, kids are exponentially more likely to live with your faith and values as adults. Be the father that leads your family to THE father.

Blessed Are the Dads Who Are Merciful:

Be a loving mentor in your home. Don't break hearts. Mold them. Don't be "The Punisher." Be a mentor and teacher. Treat your children with respect. Don't just yell or impose harsh consequences when they mess up. Instead, teach them how to meet their needs and express themselves in good and godly ways. Put more energy into encouraging, teaching and supporting good behavior than in punishing bad.

Blessed Are the Dads Who Are Pure in Heart:

Cherish the treasure of your wife and children. Protect their dignity. Affirm their worth.

Pope St. John Paul the Great taught that the opposite of love is use. Love makes people more people-y. Use makes people into things or tools. Don't treat your wife or kids as the "things" that exist to make YOUR life easier. Set the standard for loving service in your home.

Blessed Are the Dads Who Are Peacemakers:

Keep your house in order. Prioritize your family. Protect the heart of your home.

St. Augustine said, "Peace is the tranquility of right order." Be the hands-on dad that makes sure your household is characterized by respect, generosity, mutual service, and orderliness.

Blessed Are the Dads Who Are Persecuted for the Sake of Righteousness:

The world will try to undermine your effort to be an awesome dad. Be one anyway.

When your friends, family-of-origin, co-workers, or employers try to make you sacrifice what's best for your family for what they want, choose your family and know God the Father will honor your sacrifice.

This month, it is my prayer that ever-Catholic man would let the example of St. Joseph, the Patron Saint of Families and Fathers to teach us to be fathers after The Father's own heart. Happy Father's Day to all fathers, grandfathers, stepfathers, adopted fathers, honorary fathers, big brothers, uncles – all who play the role of "dad". Please, remember and pray for the fathers who have gone before us marked with faith.

~ "Happiness is to be found only in the home where God is loved, honored, where each one loves, and helps, and cares for the others." — St. Theophane Venard

"Thanks a Million"

It is my humble privilege to thank sincerely all those who were part of our Parish celebration on the Pentecost Sunday, which is our patronal Feast Day of Our Parish Community. As you know, it took an enormous amount of time to put together for a beautiful celebration. I can't thank enough for your dedication, commitment and your hospitality to make a memorable celebration of our faith community. Thank you to each ministry head and its members for your generosity of time and talents, especially, our parishioners, friends and well-wishers from outside of our parish for making it a memorable celebration for every one of us. May God bless you abundantly.

SACRAMENT OF THE ANOINTING OF THE SICK

In the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick, through the ministry of the priest, it is Jesus who touches the sick to heal them from sin – and sometimes even from physical ailment. His cures were signs of the arrival of the Kingdom of God. The core message of his healing tells us of his plan to conquer sin and death by his dying and rising.

Please call the church office
at 904-641-7244

To schedule our priest to visit you.

The sacrament is also available after the 8:30am Mass on the First Saturday of every

SCAM ALERT

As we approach the summer season, please be aware of new email, text, call and social media scams. If you receive a message or email from Fr. John Peter asking if you are available and can send him money or gift cards, even to surprise staff or others.

PLEASE IGNORE!!! This is a scam!!!

Common signs of scams are incorrect email addresses or unfamiliar caller id locations; scammers are now able to change caller id numbers to pretend to be a known number as well. Inconsistent or improper tone of language are also signs of scammers. Social media scams will use official photos but have low number of followers and posts will be irrelevant to the person.

Please be careful and feel free to call the church office to double check any inquiries.
