FELLOWSHIP AND PRAYER

SACRED SILENCE INSIDE THE CHURCH

To encourage a prayerful space, we ask that sacred silence is observed once inside the church nave.

Silence has a great significance to our liturgy as described in the General Instruction of the Roman Missal: "Sacred silence also, as part of the celebration, is to be observed at the designated times...Even before the celebration [of Mass] itself, it is commendable that silence to be observed in the church, in the sacristy, in the vesting room, and in adjacent areas, so that all may dispose themselves to carry out the sacred action in a devout and fitting manner (GIRM 45)."

Even Bishop Erik Pohlmeier, in a letter about the Eucharistic Revival, has spoken about the importance of silence inside the church building: "For this reason, I am asking every parish to begin a more direct preparation for the encounter with Jesus at Mass. I ask every parish to create a more intentional environment of prayer before Mass begins. The main area of the church, especially around the altar, should preserve silence before Mass. The goal of this silence is not merely a greater quiet. This silence should promote a kind of prayer that turns the heart to God in anticipation. Enter your parish church with expectation for the gifts that God gives. Bring your joys and sorrows to the altar. Take time before Mass to speak with the Lord in your heart. Pray for your intentions. Surrender your burdens. Open your heart and mind to the Word of God in the Scriptures."

Thank you for your understanding!

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

"The Body and the Blood of Jesus Christ"

MIRACLES OF THE EUCHARIST

What is the miracle of the Eucharist?

Miracles of the Eucharist are miraculous divine interventions that are aimed at confirming faith in the real presence of the Body and blood of the Lord in the Eucharist. We are familiar with the Catholic doctrine relating to this real presence; with words of consecration, "this is my body" and "this is my blood", the substance of the bread becomes the body of Christ, and the substance of the wine becomes his Blood.

This awe-inspiring change is known as transubstantiation, in other words, the transition of the substance. Only the appearances, or species, of the bread and wine remain; these are known by the philosophical term "accidents". The dimensions, color, flavor and odor remain, as do the nutrients, but the substance, or rather the true reality, does not remain because it has become the body and blood of Jesus Christ. Transubstantiation can in no way be experienced by the senses; faith alone makes certain of this miraculous change.

Miracles of the Eucharist are intended to confirm this faith, which is based on the words of Christ, according to which what seems like bread is no longer bread, and what seems like wine is no longer wine. Flesh and blood, or one or the other, appear in Miracles of the Eucharist, depending on the case. The aim of miracles such as these is to demonstrate that we should not look at external appearances (Bread and wine), but at the substance, at the true reality of things, which is flesh and blood.

Medieval theologians scrutinized the issue of Miracles of the Eucharist (which were very common at that time) and interpreted them in a variety of different ways. The most well founded and reasoned of these seems to be that of the supreme "Doctor of the Eucharist" Saint Thomas Aquinas (Cf, Summa Theologica III, q. 76, a. 8). He says that the body and blood that appear after the miracle are a result of the transformation of the Eucharistic species, or rather of the accidents, and that they do not affect the real substance of the body and blood of Christ. The species of the bread and wine are miraculously changed into species of flesh and blood, but the real body and real blood of Christ are not those that appear.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

They are those that, even before the miracle, were hidden beneath the species of bread and wine, and continue to exist hidden beneath the species of the flesh and blood. If, in fact, the flesh and blood that appear were really the flesh and blood of Christ, we would have to say that the risen Christ, who reigns at God's right hand, loses a part of his flesh and blood that appear in the miracles are a type of species, appearance or accident, no more and no less than the species of the bread and wine. The Lord carries out these miracles to give a sign that is easy and visible to all, that the real body and blood of Christ are present in the Eucharist.

But this real body and this real blood are not those that appear, rather they are substantially contained beneath the species or appearances, species or appearances that were those of the bread and wine before the miracle, and after the miracle are those of flesh and blood. Christ is truly and substantially contained beneath the appearances of flesh and blood, just as he was before the miracle. This is why we can worship Christ in his real presence beneath the species of the flesh and blood.

“What you see is the bread and the chalice; that is what your own eyes report to you. But what your faith obliges you to accept is that the bread is the body of Christ, and the chalice is the blood of Christ. This has been said very briefly, which may perhaps be sufficient for faith; yet faith does not desire instruction. ~ St Augustine

AROUND OUR PARISH

WHY REGISTER IN A PARISH? & IS YOUR INFO UPDATED?

A Catholic parish is a witness and part of the living Body of Christ. This is where we continue the mission of Jesus Christ through our liturgies, ministries and services. This is where we publicly express our faith, joining together with others to give witness of our communion with God and in fellowship with one another.

There are many reasons to register:

- A sense of belonging and identity in a parish community
- Being included in the active status of the parish helps in the planning for the liturgical and logistical needs of the parish
- Gives the parish a way to contact and connect with you
- Be able to receive the Sacraments of Baptism, First Reconciliation, First Holy Communion, Confirmation, or Holy Matrimony
- Have the ability to complete the diocesan eligibility form and/or letter of good standing to be a sponsor/godparent in Baptism or Confirmation
- Allows you to receive important parish information or alerts in times of emergency such as hurricane closure/opening updates
- ...and so much more!

If you would like to register, you can register on the Holy Spirit website at <https://holyspiritchurchjax.org/new-parishioner-registration/> or contact the church office @ (904) 641-7244.

If you are already registered...

it is important to keep your information updated. If you have moved or changed your contact information, please contact the church office as well.

STEWARDSHIP FOOD FOR THOUGHT: CORPUS CHRISTI

In today's Gospel, the disciples suggest that Jesus disperse the crowd so that they might individually seek food and lodging. The miracle of the feeding of the five thousand is Jesus' powerful reminder that when we share our gifts in His name there is always more than enough!

PASTORAL COUNCIL NOTICE: SURVEY RESULTS COMING SOON!

Thank you to everyone who participated in the parish survey. Quite a few parishioners have expressed an interest in the survey results, so we wanted to let you know that we received a lot of feedback and we are actively working to analyze it and create a plan to address the needs of the parish. We will provide further information as we conclude the plan.

SCAM ALERT

As we approach the summer season, please be aware of new email, text, call and social media scams. If you receive a message or email from Fr. John Peter asking if you are available and can send him money or gift cards, even to surprise staff or others.

PLEASE IGNORE!!! This is a scam!!!

Common signs of scams are incorrect email addresses or unfamiliar caller id locations; scammers are now able to change caller id numbers to pretend to be a known number as well. Inconsistent or improper tone of language are also signs of scammers. Social media scams will use official photos but have low number of followers and posts will be irrelevant to the person.

Please be careful and feel free to call the church office to double check any inquiries.
