FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, THE KING OF THE UNIVERSE

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

The Feast of Christ the King was instituted by Pope Pius XI in 1925 through the encyclical Quas Primas. It arose in a time of rising secularism, nationalism, and rejection of Christian values. The Church affirmed that Christ is King of all creation, not only spiritually but also socially—that His authority extends over individuals, families, and nations. Doctrinally, the feast is rooted in Scripture: Christ as “King of kings and Lord of lords” (Rev 19:16), the promised Davidic King (Luke 1:32–33), and the One whose kingdom is eternal (Dan 7:14).

Pius XI taught that recognizing Christ's kingship brings true peace, moral order, and justice. The feast reminds the faithful that Christ reigns through truth, grace, and love, and that all earthly power must ultimately submit to Him. In 1969, it was placed on the last Sunday of the liturgical year, highlighting His role as the King of the Universe and the culmination of salvation history.

In 2 Samuel 5:1–3, we read that Israel anoints David as king, recognizing that he was the one who shepherded them even before he wore a crown. David's kingship points forward to a greater King — Jesus Christ, the Son of David — whose rule is not built on force, but on faithful love and sacrifice.

In Luke 23:35–43, we see the astonishing moment when Christ's kingship is revealed most clearly: on the Cross. Instead of a golden throne, He reigns from a place of suffering. Instead of soldiers shouting victory, the rulers, soldiers, and even a criminal mocked Him. And yet, this is the very moment He exercises His royal authority — to forgive, to save, and to open paradise.

When the good thief says, “Jesus, remember me when You come into Your kingdom,” Jesus responds with the royal promise: “Today you will be with me in Paradise.” This is the King who conquers not by domination, but by mercy.

Living Under Christ's Reign Means:

Let Christ Reign in Your Heart

A king's authority is only effective where it is welcomed. We honor Christ the King by letting His word, His teachings, and His commandments guide our decisions, actions and our faith.

Choose the Good Thief's Response

The good thief teaches us that Christ's kingdom opens to anyone who turns to Him with humility. No past is too dark, no sin too great. In daily life, this means returning to confession, asking for mercy, and beginning again.

Reign With Him Through Service

Jesus rules by pouring Himself out. We participate in His kingship by serving others — especially the poor, the forgotten, and those who cannot repay us. Every act of love extends far and wide of His kingdom in the world.

May Christ the King reign in our minds through truth, in our hearts through love, and in our actions through service. Viva Cristo Rey.

THANKSGIVING DAY

Few days seem more wholesome in the United States as Thanksgiving. It is a day that means universal family, generosity and gratitude. From an early age, we listen to the folkloric origins of the celebration and in school we dress up as Pilgrims or Indians to remember its historic origins.

Clearly, Thanksgiving has Protestant origins. The Pilgrims were a group of Puritans that were fleeing religious persecution in the Old World. This may cause some to raise the question whether it is correct for Catholics to celebrate Thanksgiving. However, there is even a Mass for Thanksgiving Day to be celebrated the fourth Sunday of November in the dioceses of the United States. This makes it clear that it can be proudly celebrated by American Catholics.

1. Remember the “First” Thanksgiving

One objection to a Catholic celebrating Thanksgiving could be that the celebration of the Mass is already a celebration of thanksgiving. The very word “Eucharist” means “to give thanks.” So, long before the Pilgrims broke bread with the native inhabitants of New England, Jesus Christ began the feast of Thanksgiving with his own body and blood. Each time we celebrate Mass, we are giving thanks to God for all his blessings present in our lives.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

2. Go to Mass

Following on that same thought, no amount of turkey or pumpkin pie is going to outdo the tremendous gesture of thanksgiving present at every Eucharistic Celebration. It might seem impractical to some to go to Mass on Thanksgiving, but it is a cool way to start off the day. Plus, there are also the knowing winks with other Catholics who are "on the in." Catholics at Mass on Thanksgiving are the ones who really know what it is all about.

3. Invest in service

Jesus told his disciples: "I have come to serve, not to be served." (Mt. 20:28) The leader models the way for his followers. As Catholics, we should resist the temptation to just sit back and relax on Thanksgiving. In first place, we should serve our family with whom we gather for the celebration. But we should also think about serving those beyond our family who perhaps need a hand up. Many families create a beautiful tradition of serving the less fortunate on the big holidays and thus ensure that their family values of generosity and self-giving are passed on to the younger generation.

4. Be thankful for real

Secular representations of the Thanksgiving table are often used for comic effect. It is always interesting to see the spirit of gratitude that is directed at no one in particular. As Catholics, we can direct our gratitude towards the living God who has given us life, shelter, clothing, food family and health. Thank God when you are being thankful before the Thanksgiving meal. This helps to preserve the true meaning of the festivity and allows all to be fully engaged.

5. Be thankful for religious freedom

In the same way that the Pilgrims were experiencing religious persecution in Europe, remember that many Catholics had to fight with bigotry and exclusion both in the Old and New World. Though society is still far from perfect, Catholics should be very thankful for the huge grace of being able to live out their faith in a country that does not have a Catholic majority.

6. Be thankful to belong to Christ's mystical body

There are so many special graces that we live as Catholics that our fellow Americans cannot even imagine. With humility, we should be grateful to God for this as well. Going back to the very word of the day, Thanksgiving can be celebrated more fully by someone who can receive the Eucharist. Perhaps the next time you go up to receive communion, think that your "Amen" stands in some way for "Thanks."

7. Don't forget the stuffing

As Catholics, we believe in celebration. Live the day fully! Be thankful. Spend your time with family and friends. It only comes around once a year and is always well worth the effort. Christ's victory over death on the Cross is the greatest gift any of us can receive and is something we commemorate at each Eucharistic celebration. But we also enjoy our turkey, stuffing and pumpkin pie.

Like all good things in life, Thanksgiving is better for Catholics. Through the grace of God, we are better equipped to get the most out of life and appreciate the very special gifts that God gives us. The Church can "baptize" secular celebrations, as can be seen with the feast of Christmas. Something already celebrated by pagan people was converted into the celebration of the birth of Our Lord. Thanksgiving offers more to work with, as eventually all gratitude must lead back to God. In the Mass for Thanksgiving Day, we pray in the Collect: "Father all-powerful, your gifts of love are countless and your goodness infinite; as we come before you on Thanksgiving Day with gratitude for your kindness, open our hearts to have concern for every man, woman and child, so that we may share your gifts in loving service."

Second Collection

There will be a second collection on December 13 & 14 in support of the Congregation of the Missionaries of Saint Francis

De Sales (MSFS). MSFS was founded in France in the year 1838 by Fr. Peter Marie Mermier to spread the renewal of faith in the Love of God, plant the Gospel in the mission lands of Africa and Asia and develop the society through education both spiritual and material, provide institutions of formation of priests and Catechists, and establish spirituality Centers to continue the work of St. Francis De Sales in our modern time. This Missionary Congregation is seeking our support and participation in their ministry to the world. Please be generous as your means allow in the second collection.
