2026 BISHOP'S ANNUAL STEWARDSHIP APPEAL
FEBRUARY 14-15, 2026

The Bishop's Annual Stewardship Appeal (BASA) is now underway. Parishioners throughout our diocese will receive a mailing from Bishop Pohlmeier inviting their prayerful participation in this year's appeal, which supports essential ministries serving our parishes, families, and those in need.

This year's theme, "Grateful to God. Generous to Others.", reminds us that God is the source of all good and that everything we have is a gift. Generosity becomes a way of allowing God's blessings to flow through us to meet the needs of others. Through BASA, we join together as good stewards of the gifts God has entrusted to us, and our generosity toward others becomes a visible expression of our faith.

We ask that you commit this invitation to prayer and, if your circumstances allow, come prepared to respond next weekend by completing a commitment envelope at Mass or using the giving options provided on the reply card mailed to your home. Gifts to the appeal are made in addition to regular parish support, and every gift, no matter the amount, plays an important role as the Church continues to serve in times of great need.
