RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY: A PRAYER FOR OUR CHILDREN

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Dear St. Joseph of Cupertino, you were an angry, frustrated child. We pray for all who struggle to express themselves, and that you help us overcome sins of anger. We pray especially for our unborn and born children.

Our Father - Hail Mary - Glory Be - St. Joseph of Cupertino, pray for us!
In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

“He bore them on eagles’ wings. He had compassion for them”.

My Sisters and Brothers,

In this week's liturgical readings, we see two images stand out to give us an idea of the relationship of the Lord with his people and us. The first reminds us that God carried the people of Israel 'on eagles' wings. If they keep his covenant, they will become a holy nation. God is reminding the Israelites of all that he has done for them so far. And so, we ponder today. What has he done for us? Have we ever felt carried along 'on eagles' wings? We pause a moment and consider what it must be like to move freely, secure above the difficulties on the ground, and to safely reach the destination we are yearning for?

The second, in Matthew's Gospel, is the compassion of Jesus for his people. Feeling sorry for them, he calls his twelve disciples and gives them authority to heal and support them in their helplessness. When we fully realize the extent of this compassion, we may want to cry out and sing with joy, like the Psalmist. However, as the people failed to obey the Lord's voice, God shows yet again his merciful love through the death of his Son for them; for us.

This week, then, we might like to focus our prayer especially on those people in the world who feel harassed and helpless, trusting that the Lord will look after them. How far do we see ourselves as a member of 'a holy nation': part of God's own people? Do they – do I – continue to feel 'carried on eagles' wings? Are we dealing with present difficulties that can sometimes cause us to forget that God is leading us? What is our sense that, always and in everything, God is inviting us to encounter his divine presence?

We look at the reading again, through the lens of our own personal journeying with God. Maybe there is an invitation to look deeper into the value of our own spiritual history? Like the people of Israel, perhaps we realize that we would not even be here were it not for God sustaining us at every moment? Spend some quiet time with the Lord and ponder whatever comes to mind and remember, we are God's beloved children. We are called, loved and embraced — cherished beyond measure no matter what we go through in life. Have a Blessed Week!

~ They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary; they will walk and not be faint. Isaiah 40:31
