WEEKLY SCHEDULE

MASS INTENTIONS

July 22: St. Mary Magdalene

St. Mary Magdalene is a central biblical figure and the first witness to Jesus' resurrection. Celebrated on July 22, she holds the prestigious title of "Apostle to the Apostles".

For centuries in Western Christianity, she was conflated with other unnamed penitent women in the Bible (such as the sinner in Luke 7) and erroneously associated with a history of promiscuity. Modern scripture scholars, however, maintain there is no biblical basis for this connection.

Because of her devotion and her historical anointing of Jesus' feet with costly perfume and wiping them with her hair, she is the patron saint of pharmacists, hairdressers, perfumers, converts, repentant sinners and those ridiculed for their piety.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

A Message from Bishop Erik Pohlmeier to the Faithful

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The unity of the Church is one of Christ's greatest gifts and one of our greatest responsibilities. It is with sadness that I write following the Holy See's announcement concerning the Priestly Fraternity of St. Pius X (SSPX).

On July 1, 2026, four bishops were consecrated without the required mandate of Pope Leo XIV. After repeated efforts by the Holy See to prevent these consecrations, the Dicastery for the Doctrine of the Faith determined that these episcopal consecrations constituted a schismatic act. As a result, those directly involved incurred excommunication. The Holy See has provided guidance regarding the clergy and lay faithful associated with the SSPX.

Because there is an SSPX chapel within the Diocese of St. Augustine, I know many of you may have questions about what this means for you, your family or friends. My hope is to offer clarity while also encouraging all of us to remain united with Christ, His Church and the Successor of St. Peter.

What this Means for the Faithful

The Holy See's decree concerns those who knowingly and formally adhere to the schism of the SSPX. Catholics who may have attended an SSPX chapel for liturgical or spiritual reasons should not automatically conclude that they have incurred excommunication. Each person's circumstances must be considered individually.

If you are concerned about your own situation or that of a loved one, I encourage you to speak with your parish priest. The Church desires to accompany the faithful with charity, clarity and pastoral care.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

The Holy See has declared that, beginning July 1, 2026, the sacrament of penance celebrated by SSPX priests and marriages witnessed by SSPX clergy are invalid. Catholics are also asked to refrain from participating in liturgies and other activities promoted by the SSPX.

Excommunication is one of the Church's most serious canonical penalties, but it is intended to call individuals to repentance, reconciliation and the restoration of full communion with Christ and His Church.

The Traditional Latin Mass in the Diocese of St. Augustine

The Diocese of St. Augustine recognizes that many Catholics have a deep appreciation for the beauty and reverence of the Traditional Latin Mass. The Diocese of St. Augustine continues to provide this form of the Roman Rite in full communion with the Catholic Church.

The Traditional Latin Mass is celebrated each Sunday at St. Joseph Catholic Church (Historic Church), 11730 Old St. Augustine Road, Jacksonville, FL 32258. Sunday Masses are at 7:30 a.m. (Low Mass) and 12:30 p.m. (High Mass).

Catholics are asked to refrain from participating in liturgies and activities of the priestly Fraternity of St. Pius X at St. Michael the Archangel chapel, 1950 Bartram Road, Jacksonville, in accordance with the guidance issued by the Holy See.

A Call to Prayer and Unity

Throughout the Church's history, communion with the Successor of St. Peter has been a visible sign of our communion with Christ and with one another. Let us be witnesses to the unity for which the Lord prayed, resisting every temptation toward division or contempt.

As your bishop, I ask you to pray for Pope Leo XIV, for the members of the priestly Fraternity of St. Pius X and for all who are affected by these events, that the Holy Spirit may lead all hearts to reconciliation and full communion with the Church.

May the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church, intercede for us and lead us ever closer to her Son.

In Christ,

Most Rev. Erik T. Pohlmeier
Bishop of St. Augustine

2026 NFP AWARENESS WEEK

Designed by God Guided by Love Open to Life

Rev. Msgr. Robert R. Cannon

NATURAL FAMILY PLANNING

The natural beauty of creation has the power to draw us into the mystery of God. We can see, feel, smell, and sense God's creative handiwork in so many ways. Consider when we pause to savor the burst of colors in a sunset or the rhythmic sound of waves rolling upon a beach. It might be in the playful antics of a kitten or a child's first step. Everything reflects and proclaims God's glory and love. The Church teaches that through natural revelation, "even before revealing Himself to man in words of truth, God reveals Himself ... in the universal language of creation, the work of His word, of His wisdom" (CCC, 2500).

The Church teaches that through "natural reason, man can know God...on the basis of His works" (CCC, 50). When we allow ourselves to be attentive to the wonder of creation, we begin to see that creation is not random or accidental, but ordered and purposeful. God has established laws within creation on which humanity can rely with confidence, laws that are to be respected by the stewardship of men and women (see CCC, 346).

Designed by God

In creating man and woman in His image and likeness, God enables us to share in His own life (see CCC, 225). Human dignity flows from this divine design. And, because God is love, divine love is inscribed in the human body itself. St. John Paul II taught that the body has a "spousal meaning" (see General Audience, April 14, 1982), as God has written into human nature the vocation and responsibility of love and communion (see FC, 14). It is found in every man and woman, expressed in sexuality and fertility, marriage, and procreation. And here is where the modern methods of Natural Family Planning (NFP) stand ready to help. NFP supports the Creator's sublime design for marriage, guided by love, and open to life.

God's creation of male and female is not incidental but intentional. Sexuality, therefore, is purposeful. It draws people out of isolation and toward communion. It affects "every aspect of the human person" and it allows man and woman to unite in the unique communion of persons called marriage (see CCC, 371–372; 2332–2335). Flowing from this reality of community, marriage reflects God's own inner life—a communion of love that is both life-giving and faithful.

Guided by Love

Guided by love means to be directed toward the good of the other. Love, by its nature, is relational. St. John Paul II powerfully expressed this truth when he wrote that man cannot live without love; without it, life becomes senseless and incomprehensible (see RH, 10).

Of all creatures, only human beings can know and love God and consciously participate in His life. St. Paul teaches, "we are created in Christ Jesus for the good works that God has prepared in advance" (Ephesians 2:11). To be guided by love is to participate in God's creative plan and to help build a culture of life and love (see EV, 77).

Marriage is neither a social invention nor a product of chance. "It is ... the wise...institution of God the Creator, whose purpose was to effect in man His loving design" (HV, 8). Because of this divine origin, the Church teaches that married love is freely given, faithful, permanent, and fruitful (see HV, 9). Marital love reflects God's own love!

When a man and a woman freely exchange consent, they establish a covenant for "the whole of life" that is

2026 NFP AWARENESS WEEK

“ordered by its very nature to the good of the spouses and to the procreation and education” of children (see Canon 1055). God Himself is present within this union. When the spouses are baptized Christians, marriage becomes a sacrament, receiving its strength and permanence from Christ Himself.

Open to Life

A unique gift and responsibility contained in the marital vocation is stewardship over the powers of life. God calls husband and wife to embrace their shared fertility as a gift. The Lord God created marriage to be the home of the family. Spouses give “themselves to one another” and at the same time give beyond themselves to the reality of “children, who are a living reflection of their love, a permanent sign of conjugal unity” (see FC, 14).

As stewards of the gift of fertility, married couples are invited to seek God’s will together in a spirit of trust and humility. It is in this spirit that God helps them make prudent decisions about welcoming children. It is within this discernment that NFP finds its proper place.

NFP methods are evidence-based approaches to fertility education that can assist couples in identifying when fertility is at its peak so that couples can attempt to achieve or postpone pregnancy. When avoiding pregnancy, no drugs or devices are used that can harm God’s gifts. NFP differs fundamentally from contraception. Rather than interfering with God’s design for married couples, NFP respects the integrity of married love and the gift of life.

When pregnancy has been attempted and a child is conceived, parents speak of the great joy and gratitude that they have. They also say that the time of childbirth is one of the most meaningful moments in their lives. Mothers will speak of God’s presence when first holding their newborn baby. Fathers proudly admit they finally understand the meaning of fatherhood when looking into their newborn’s eyes. This self-realization is due to the natural and “the fundamental task of family,” which is “to serve life, to actualize...the original blessing of the Creator ...of transmitting by procreation the divine image from person to person” (see FC, 28).

The fruitfulness of spousal love is not limited to the gift of children. Some couples, despite their desires, are unable to conceive. In this case, a married couple’s openness to life can be expressed in other ways through adoption, foster care, or generous service to the Church and community. The vocation of marriage is wide—it calls all married couples to create homes where love is shared and others are nurtured. They are all called to mirror God’s love.

All of creation proclaims the glory of God and the handiwork of His love! Whether single or married, every person is created in God’s image and likeness, given the capacity to love, and invited to share in His life. Within the arms of God’s love, marriage stands as a unique gift to humanity—a sacred communion in which husband and wife live the fullness of human sexuality and become stewards of life. Marriage is not merely for the good of husband and wife, but for the good of the world. Truly, marriage is designed by God, guided by love, and open to life!

AROUND OUR PARISH

YOUTH MINISTRY UPDATE

Our parish youth ministry is in need of adults to volunteer for the middle school and high school core teams. We ask you to prayerfully consider serving our Edge middle school group and/or our Life Teen high school group.

Adults must be 21 years of age or older, be a registered parishioner at Holy Spirit, and complete the Safe Environment requirements of the diocese. You do not need to be a scripture scholar or theologian. Training will be provided.

Our youth ministry cannot happen without you! We need 10 adults to move forward with this ministry. Once we have our core members we can then hire a youth minister. Please contact the office with any questions. Thank you for your continued support of our teens!

SCOUTS TROOP 182 SERVICE PROJECT

Holy Spirit Family Scout Troop 182 is collecting aluminum cans as part of a service project. Parishioners are invited to help by placing bagged aluminum cans only in the collection bin located by the basketball court.

Thank you for supporting our Scouts and helping care for God's creation through recycling!
