FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly

"I Will Not Forget You" (Isaiah 49:15)

World Day
for Grandparents and the Elderly

My dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Today, as we celebrate the World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly, the Word of God gives us a message of hope, dignity, and love. Through the prophet Isaiah, the Lord says, "Can a mother forget her infant? Even should she forget, I will never forget you" (Isaiah 49:15). This is one of the most beautiful promises in Sacred Scripture. God's love is constant, faithful, and everlasting. Every human person, especially the elderly who may sometimes feel lonely, forgotten, or abandoned, remains forever remembered and cherished by God.

The Catholic Church teaches that every stage of human life is sacred because every person is created in the image and likeness of God (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1700). The elderly are not a burden to society but a precious treasure. They are living witnesses of faith, perseverance, sacrifice, and hope. Grandparents have a unique vocation to hand in faith, preserve family traditions, and inspire younger generations through their prayers and examples.

In today's Gospel, Jesus compares the Kingdom of Heaven to a treasure hidden in a field and to a pearl of great price. The one who discovers this treasure joyfully sells everything to possess it. The greatest treasure we can ever possess is not wealth, success, or popularity, but a living relationship with Jesus Christ and the gift of eternal life.

Many grandparents have already discovered this treasure. Through decades of prayer, fidelity to the sacraments, suffering borne with faith, and generous love for their families, they have found Christ as the pearl of great price. Their lives remind us that true happiness comes from seeking God above everything else.

This Gospel also invites younger generations to recognize the priceless treasure that God has placed within their own families. Grandparents are not simply the keepers of old memories; they are treasures of wisdom, faith, and unconditional love. Their stories teach resilience, their sacrifices reveal authentic love, and their prayers sustain families in ways that often go unnoticed.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Here are some Practical Lessons:

Persevere in Prayer: Joachim and Anne waited many years for their prayers to be answered. In our lives, when God seems silent, we can continue to pray with faith and trust that His timing is perfect.

Value Family Formation: Their example shows the importance of creating a home where faith is nurtured. Today, this can mean praying as a family, reading Scripture together, or passing on traditions that root children in God's love.

Honor the Elderly: As grandparents of Jesus, Joachim and Anne remind us to value the wisdom and presence of older generations. We can visit grandparents, call elderly relatives, or learn from their stories as a way of honoring their role in our lives.

On this World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly, let us renew our commitment never to forget them, because God Himself never forgets them. Visit them, call them, listen to them, pray with them, and learn from them. The greatest gift we can offer them is our time, our love, and our gratitude.

Finally, let each of us ask: Have I truly discovered Christ as the greatest treasure of my life? If Jesus is our treasure, then everything else finds its proper place. Like the merchant who joyfully gave up everything to gain the pearl of great price, may we willingly place Christ at the center of our lives.

May the Blessed Virgin Mary,

lovingly cared for Her elderly Parents according to the Church's tradition, intercede for all grandparents and the elderly. Saints Joachim and Anne, holy parents of Mary and grandparents of Jesus, intercede for us that we may persevere in prayer, cherish the gift of family, and honor the wisdom of those who came before us. May they know that they are deeply loved by God, treasured by the Church, and remembered by all of us. Pray that we may form our homes in faith and prepare the next generation to know and love Christ. Amen.

AROUND OUR PARISH

SCOUTS TROOP 182 SERVICE PROJECT

Holy Spirit Family Scout Troop 182 is collecting aluminum cans as part of a service project.

Parishioners are invited to help by placing bagged aluminum cans only in the collection bin located by the basketball court.

Thank you for supporting our Scouts and helping care for God's creation through recycling!

YOUTH MINISTRY UPDATE

Our parish youth ministry is in need of adults to volunteer for the middle school and high school core teams. We ask you to prayerfully consider serving our Edge middle school group and/or our Life Teen high school group.

Adults must be 21 years of age or older, be a registered parishioner at Holy Spirit, and complete the Safe Environment requirements of the diocese. You do not need to be a scripture scholar or theologian. Training will be provided.

Our youth ministry cannot happen without you! We need 10 adults to move forward with this ministry. Once we have our core members we can then hire a youth minister. Please contact the office with any questions. Thank you for your continued support of our teens!

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS ANNOUNCEMENT

Our Knights of Columbus Council 11069 is having their monthly meeting on Thursday, August 6th at 6:30pm, in the Family Life Center.

Join the Knights of Columbus to build a brotherhood rooted in faith, family, and community. As the world's largest Catholic fraternal organization, the Knights empower men to put their faith into action through charity, defending the sanctity of life, and supporting their local parish and area.

Whether you are looking to strengthen your role as a father and husband, connect with like-minded Catholic men in your neighborhood, or access top-rated fraternal insurance benefits, the Knights offer a powerful way to make a difference. You decide how much time you can commit, making it easy to balance membership with your busy life.

If you are interested in joining, you are welcome to join the meeting or contact John Hartley at 904-237-7154. Thank you!
