Annual Marian Rosary Procession & Mass

The month of October each year is dedicated to the Most Holy Rosary. This is primarily due to the fact that the liturgical feast of Our Lady of the Rosary is celebrated annually on October 7.

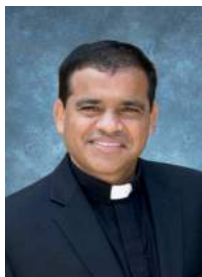

It was instituted to honor the Blessed Virgin Mary in gratitude for the protection that she gives the Church in answer to the praying of the Rosary by the faithful.

Come join us for our Annual Rosary Procession around the church grounds immediately followed by Mass.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

“From Empty Promises to Meaningful Actions”

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Life is full of promises. We promise to change, to become better, to forgive, to serve, and to do what is right. Sometimes, we make these promises with the best intentions. But as the days pass, our good intentions remain just words.

In the Gospel passage, Jesus tells a story about two sons who were asked by their father to work in his vineyard. One initially refused but later changed his mind and went. The other agreed to go but never did. Through this story, Jesus reminds us that what we do matters more than what we say.

Let us examine our daily behavior and ask ourselves: Am I becoming the person God wants me to be? Change requires more than good intentions. It requires consistent effort.

We do not have to wait for a perfect moment to become better people. Every morning offers a new beginning. Every encounter gives us a chance to show love. Every challenge can teach us patience. Every mistake can become an invitation to grow. Indeed, God is not looking for people who simply make impressive promises. He desires hearts that are willing to respond through action.

We may have said “no” to God in the past through our choices, our excuses, or our weaknesses. But it is never too late to turn around and begin again.

CHANGE is not about becoming someone else. It is about becoming the person God created us to be. So, let our prayers become actions, our intentions become commitments, and our faith becomes a blessing to others. And remember: A delayed “yes” to God is better than a beautiful promise that never becomes reality. Let us meditate on how we can turn our faith into meaningful action.

Blessed Fulton J. Sheen’s Guide to Victory over Vice

Blessed Fulton Sheen claims that since all seven deadly sins led Christ’s enemies to nail Him to the Cross, we can find in the example of His suffering and death sure means to overcome each of those sins, plus the key to understanding — and to nurturing in our own soul — each corresponding virtue.

So, for example, Blessed Sheen teaches us not only how to conquer our gluttony; he shows us how to satisfy our spiritual hunger. We learn not merely how to overcome pride; we discover what we must do to grow humble. From Christ’s holy response to each of the seven deadly sins that led to His Crucifixion, Blessed Sheen draws a lesson in how you and I must deal with those same sins, whether we meet them in others or in ourselves.

Day after day, Catholic Christians struggle to do good, to avoid evil, and to take up with patience and love the crosses that threaten to crush them. For those of us who still know more of sin than sanctity, Blessed Fulton Sheen’s revelation of the light that vice sheds on virtue affords a way to understand even better, and a means to attain it. If you abide by the holy counsel of Blessed Fulton Sheen, enduring virtue will soon be yours: you will have achieved your own long-sought-after victory over vice.

Anger: It is not hatred that is wrong; it is hating the wrong thing that is wrong. It is not anger that is wrong; it is being angry at the wrong thing that is wrong. Tell me your enemy, and I will tell you what you are. Tell me your hatred, and I will tell you your character.

Envy: There is a bit of jealousy, a bit of envy, behind every cutting remark and barbed whispering we hear about our neighbor. It is always good to remember that there are always more sticks under the tree that has the most apples.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

There should be some consolation for those who are so unjustly attacked to remember that it is a physical impossibility for any man to get ahead of us who stays behind to kick us.

Lust: Lust is selfishness or perverted love. It does not look so much at the good of the other, as to the pleasure of self. It breaks the glass that holds the wine; it breaks the lute to snare the music...Deny the quality of "otherness," it seeks to make the other person care for us, but not to make us care for the other person.

Pride: Nothing is more difficult to conquer in all the world than intellectual pride. If battleships could be lined with it instead of armor, no shell could ever pierce it. This is easy to understand, for if a man thinks he knows it all, there is nothing left for him to know, not even what God might tell him.

Gluttony: The development of character depends on which hunger and thirst we cultivate...Tell me your hungers and your thirsts, and I will tell you who you are.

Sloth: We lose our souls not only by the evil we do, but also by the good we leave undone...Heaven is a city on a hill. Hence, we cannot coast into it; we must climb...In any case, it is better to burn out than rust out.

Covetousness: Man becomes like unto that which he loves, and if he loves gold, he becomes like it—cold, hard and yellow.

~ "Moral principles do not depend on a majority vote. Wrong is wrong, even if everybody is wrong. Right is right, even if nobody is right." ~ Blessed Fulton J. Sheen

COMMUNITY PROJECT UPDATE

Back in 2022, our community raised approximately $18,000 to build a grotto on one of the islands in the parking lot. Unfortunately, that project was never started.

Father John Peter now plans to use those funds for a different prayer garden—the garden that is in between the church and Family Life Center.

The money was raised through several different events, and unfortunately, we do not have a record of everyone who donated. If you contributed specifically to the grotto project and do not wish for your donation to be used toward the new beautification project, please contact the office. This notice has been approved by the Diocese.
