From the Pastor's Desk

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

On November 1st, the Church celebrates All Saints' Day, and on November 2nd, we commemorate All Souls' Day. These two celebrations remind us that death is not the end of our story. Through Jesus Christ, we are called to eternal life with God.

First, what do we celebrate on All Saints' Day?
We honor all the saints in heaven—not only those officially canonized by the Church, but also the countless holy men and women whose names are known to God alone. They lived with faith, love, sacrifice, and courage. Some were priests and religious; others were parents, children, workers, and ordinary people who lived extraordinary lives of holiness.

In Revelation 7:9, St. John sees "a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue," standing before the throne of God. This reminds us that holiness is not reserved for a few special people. Every one of us is called to become a saint by loving God, forgiving others, serving those in need, and remaining faithful in daily life.

Second, why do we celebrate All Souls' Day and pray for the dead?
Our Catholic faith teaches that death does not destroy our relationship with those who have died in Christ. We remain united in the Communion of Saints: the faithful on earth, the souls being purified, and the saints in heaven.

The scriptural foundation for praying for the dead is found in 2 Maccabees 12:44–46, which speaks of prayer and sacrifice for the deceased so that they might be freed from sin. This passage expresses the Jewish faith that prayer for the dead is a holy and meaningful act. The Catholic Church recognizes this book as inspired Scripture.
St. Paul also writes in 2 Timothy 1:16–18 a prayer asking the Lord to grant mercy to Onesiphorus on the day of judgment.

Our Church teaches that those who die in God's grace and friendship, but are not yet perfectly purified, undergo purification, which we call Purgatory. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church, paragraphs 1030–1032, explains, we can assist these souls through our prayers, especially through the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

We do not pray for the dead because we have lost hope. We pray because we trust in God's mercy and love. We commend our beloved deceased to the Lord, who alone knows every heart.

Finally, what is the spiritual meaning for our lives?

First, imitate the saints by living holy lives here and now. As Jesus tells us in Matthew 5:8, "Blessed are the clean of heart, for they will see God."

Second, remember our deceased loved ones in prayer. Offer the Holy Mass for them, pray the Rosary, visit their graves, and perform works of charity in their memory. These are expressions of Christian love and hope.

Third, prepare us for eternity. We do not know the day or hour when the Lord will call us. Let us forgive those who hurt us, reconcile with those from whom we are separated, and live each day with faith and compassion.

Dear brothers and sisters, All Saints' Day reminds us of our heavenly destination, and All Souls' Day reminds us of our responsibility to pray for those who have gone before us.

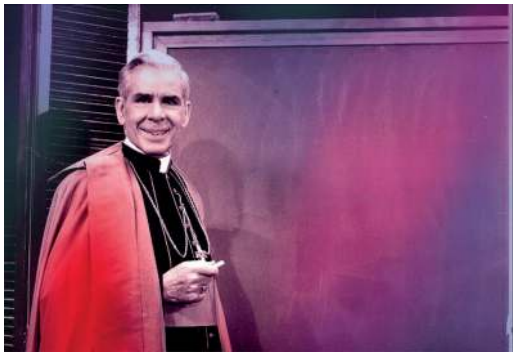

Let us never forget that the saints inspire us, our prayers unite us with the faithful departed, and Jesus Christ gives us hope beyond death.

From the Pastor's Desk

May all the saints intercede for us, and may the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen

BLESSED FULTON SHEEN ON MARXISM AND COMMUNISM

KEY VIEWS ON MARXISM AND COMMUNISM:

Blessed Fulton Sheen viewed Marxist communism and socialism as deeply flawed ideologies rooted in atheistic materialism, the denial of the human soul, and the destruction of individual dignity.

• The Scavenger of Civilizations: Blessed Fulton Sheen famously described communism as "the scavenger of decaying civilizations," arguing that it only takes root when society begins to rot morally and spiritually from within.

• Dehumanization of Man: He believed communism represented the "final logic of the dehumanization of man". By reducing human beings to mere economic units, class members, or ants in a colony, it stripped away God-given personal worth.

• Driven by Hate: Blessed Fulton Sheen maintained that communism was powered not by love or genuine concern for the worker, but by class hatred and destruction.

• False Promise of Equality: While he recognized that Marxism appealed to workers by promising equality, he warned that its method—abolishing private property and concentrating all power in an all-consuming state—made everyone entirely dependent on a tyrannical government.

• A Theological Error: According to Blessed Fulton Sheen, the fundamental error of communism was not merely economic inefficiency, but a rejection of the spiritual truth that every person is created in the image of God with an eternal destination.

Pope Pius XI's Mandate:

Pope Pius XI directly instructed Blessed Fulton Sheen to study Marxism closely and to use his public platform to expose its fallacies. Blessed Fulton Sheen detailed these critiques extensively in his writings—such as Communism and the Conscience of the West—as well as across his radio and television broadcasts.

Dear Holy Spirit Parish and School Community,

Today, we extend our heartfelt congratulations and deepest appreciation to Vickie Slade as she retires after more than nine years of dedicated service as Business and office manager. Vickie, your availability, faithfulness, and willingness to respond to the many needs of our community have been truly appreciated. You have carried many responsibilities, supported our staff, and contributed greatly to the daily life and smooth functioning of our parish and school. Your commitment has been a blessing to all of us.

What makes your service especially meaningful is not simply the work you have done, but the dedication and dependability with which you have done it. You have been someone our community could count on, always ready to assist, address concerns, and help meet the many demands of parish and school life. Over these nine-plus years, your faithful service has made a lasting difference, and we are sincerely grateful for the time, energy, and care you have given so generously. Your contributions will be remembered, and your presence will certainly be missed, especially the staff at the parish office and most importantly Myself, as a Pastor, because you have been a tremendous help and support in countless ways.

As you begin this new chapter, Vickie, may you look back on your years of service with pride and satisfaction, knowing that your work has made a meaningful difference in the lives of many in our community. On behalf of our parish and school community, thank you for your loyalty, dedication, and faithful support. May God bless you with good health, peace, happiness, and many joyful years ahead. May your retirement bring you the freedom to enjoy your family adventures, pursue your interests, and embrace each new day with gratitude and joy. Congratulations, Vickie Slade, on your well-deserved retirement, and may the Lord continue to guide and bless you abundantly.

"The Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make his shine upon you and be gracious to you..." Numbers 6:24–26
