Memorial Board

For All Souls Day & Throughout the Whole Month of November

You may bring a picture of your deceased loved ones and post it to our Memorial Board that will stay up in the gathering area for the month of November until our Annual Memorial Prayer Service.

Please write your Full Name and phone number on the back of the picture.

After November, your picture will be available for pick up at the gift shop until the end of the year.

From the Pastor's Desk

NOVEMBER IS THE MONTH TO REMEMBER ALL THE SOULS IN PURGATORY

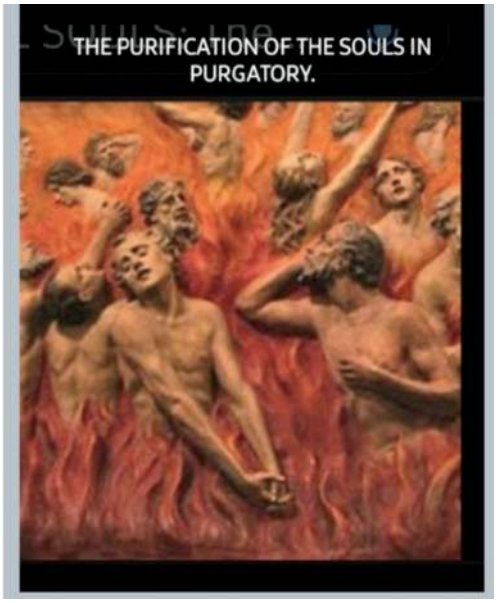

Why do we pray and offer Masses for the departed? Because it is rooted in the Sacred Scripture, Catholic Tradition, and the Teaching of the Church — along with its spiritual meaning for our own lives:

1. The Doctrine of the Communion of Saints:
The Church teaches that all the faithful — whether living or deceased — are united in Christ. This is called the Communion of Saints, consisting of:

- The Church Triumphant – the saints in heaven.
- The Church Suffering – the souls in purgatory.
- The Church Militant – the faithful on earth.

Because we are all members of one Body in Christ (cf. 1 Corinthians 12:12–27), the prayers and sacrifices of one member can benefit others.
Thus, the living can intercede for the dead who are still being purified.

2. The Doctrine of Purgatory:
The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC 1030–1032) teaches:
"All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death, they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven."
Purgatory, therefore, is not a "second chance," but a merciful purification.
Our prayers, indulgences, and especially the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, can help these souls.

3. Scriptural Foundations:
a. 2 Maccabees 12:43–46
"It is therefore a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from their sins."
This passage, from the Old Testament canon accepted by the Catholic Church, directly teaches that prayers and sacrifices for the dead are beneficial and pleasing to God.

b. 2 Timothy 1:16–18
St. Paul prays for his deceased friend Onesiphorus:
"May the Lord grant him to find mercy from the Lord on that day."
This shows that early Christians prayed for the departed.

c. Matthew 12:32
"Whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come."
This implies that some sins can be forgiven in the next life — a clear reference to purification after death.

4. The Eucharist: The Most Powerful Prayer for the Dead:
The Holy Mass is the supreme act of intercession because it makes present the one perfect sacrifice of Christ on Calvary.
At every Mass, the priest prays:
"Remember also, Lord, your servants who have gone before us with the sign of faith and rest in the sleep of peace…"
By offering the Mass for the dead, we unite their souls to the saving merits of Christ's sacrifice, helping them move from purification to eternal glory.

From the Pastor's Desk

As St. John Chrysostom said:
"Let us help and commemorate them. If Job's sons were purified by their father's sacrifice, why would we doubt that our offerings for the dead bring them some consolation?"

5. The Tradition of the Church:
From the earliest centuries, Christians have prayed for the dead:

- The Catacombs contain inscriptions like "May you have eternal rest" or "Pray for us."
- St. Augustine prayed daily for his mother, St. Monica, who had said: "Remember me at the altar of the Lord."
- The Council of Trent (Session XXV) reaffirmed: "The souls in purgatory are helped by the prayers of the faithful, especially by the holy sacrifice of the Mass."

6. Spiritual Meaning for Us:
Praying for the dead teaches us three vital truths:

1. Faith in Eternal Life: Death is not the end but a passage to communion with God.
2. Love in Action: True charity continues beyond death; our prayers express communion that death cannot break.
3. Hope in Mercy: As we help others by our prayers now, one day others will pray for us — a mutual exchange of grace in the Body of Christ.

7. Practical Ways to Pray for the Dead:

- Have Masses offered for deceased loved ones, especially on anniversaries.
- Pray the Rosary or the Office for the Dead.
- Visit cemeteries and pray during the month of November, especially All Souls' Day (Nov. 2).
- Gain indulgences for the faithful departed through the Church's prescribed acts (e.g., visiting a cemetery and praying for the dead between November (1–8).

We pray and offer Masses for the dead because:

- It is rooted in the Sacred Scripture and in the Catholic Tradition.
- It expresses the Communion of Saints.
- It assists the souls being purified in Purgatory.
- It unites us more deeply with the saving mercy of Christ

~ "Emphasized that praying for the souls in purgatory is an act of comprehensive charity, and those souls will reward us when they reach glory".
~ St. Francis de Sales
