Upcoming Significant Liturgical Days

Sept. 14: Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross (Mass @ 7PM)

In the 4th century, St. Helena went to Jerusalem in search of the holy places of Christ's life. During an excavation, workers found three crosses; legend has it that the one on which Jesus died was identified when its touch healed a dying woman. The Church of the Holy Sepulcher was built on that site and dedicated on Sept. 14.

The cross is the instrument of salvation for us Christians. It is not the cruelty of the cross that is exalted on this feast day, but the love of God that was manifested on it.

Sept 15: Memorial of Our Lady of Sorrows (Mass @ 8:30AM)

St. Ambrose saw Mary as a sorrowful yet powerful figure at the cross. Mary stood fearlessly at the cross while others fled. Mary looked on her Son's wounds with pity, but saw in them the salvation of the world.

Mary's strength to persevere in her faith and trust in God even in the darkest of times is great example to us in our Christian journey.

EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF COMMUNION

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion give the Body and Blood of our Lord to fellow parishioners during Communion at Mass.

This is possibly the most amazing thing in all the world! God Himself is given to us in the Eucharist and the Church needs our help to give this gift to our fellow parishioners. Take a moment today to pray about joining this ministry.

The next training is scheduled on Saturday, October 29 from 9am-12pm

FROM OUR PASTOR'S DESK

HOPE TO BEGIN ANEW: I guess all of us have had the experience of losing things and finding them. Have you ever lost anything? What happened when you lost whatever was dear to you? You felt frustration, sadness, and worry. You go searching for it.

Today, we learn (Lk 15:1-32) that it is not only sheep and coins that get lost. People get lost too. People of all ages can get lost in many ways. They can get lost morally and spiritually. For every sort of reason some of them just take off and vanish. People addicted to alcohol or drugs, people who cannot settle down, people who cannot hold down a job or finish a course of studies, people who are unable to maintain a stable relationship – all of these can be said to be lost.

We all have sometime or other “gone astray” and disobeyed God’s commandments. We are surrounded by evils that threaten our very existence. We are also a part of the evil that surrounds us. We multiply our sufferings through indifference and selfishness. At times we feel afraid, and we realize our own helplessness. But Jesus says: “Have no fear. I have overcome this world”. Though we all are sinners we hope in the great mercy of God. Today we are reminded of God’s loving desire to seek us out when we go astray.

St. Francis de Sales notes that when we stray far from the path of God’s love, our Savior never forgets to show that his mercy is above all his works. When our Lord sees a soul plunged into evil, He speeds to its aid. As we consent to God’s love that comes to rescue us from our misery, we are like old plants, once deadened by the winter but now growing green and vigorous. We again take on strength and life in the “wine” of heavenly love that cheers the human heart. God’s infinite mercy desires that all have life eternal and that none perish. This gives us hope to begin anew.

AROUND OUR PARISH & SCHOOL

Thank you to Dr. Cheryl and Mark Bergman for their donation in support of Ashley's Annual Appeal. Their three children were among the very first to attend Holy Spirit School back in the late 1980's.

Checks for this annual appeal can be placed in the weekly church collection baskets and earmarked for "Holy Spirit School."

All funds received this year will be used to replace out dated technology equipment in the school.

A Rachel's Vineyard weekend retreat is a beautiful opportunity for any man or woman who is struggling with the emotional and spiritual pain of an abortion in their life. Come and receive peace, forgiveness of self and others and the compassion of God. These retreats are private, strictly confidential and for people of all faiths.

Our next English retreat will be September 16-18, 2022.

A PRAYER FOR PEACE

Father, source of all peace and consolation, Keep alive within us the flame of hope, so that with patience and perseverance we may opt for dialogue and reconciliation. May peace triumph at last, and may the words "division", "hatred" and "war" be banished from the heart of every man and woman.
